Lockdowns and border closures have taken lives to increased suicide rates, and destroyed Livelihoods, causing financial ruin.

No population should ever again be subjected to Ubiquitous Public Incarceration.

Excessive Coronavirus Restrictions measures must come to an end, and all state of emergency declarations enabling these measures must be repealed.

Tyrannical suppression of dissenting voices must be stopped, and peaceful citizen assembly must be respected by police forces, instead of being violently crushed.

We have had our bodily autonomy violated by mask mandates, restricting our ability to breath and speak freely. All mask mandates must end.

Plans to mandate coronavirus vaccinations, enforced by Totalitarian Vaccine Passports, are being rolled out internationally.

We will not accept Movement Licenses (AKA Vaccine Passports) becoming a part of our travel requirements.

Any mandates that violate informed consent must be stopped totally, through legal and activist pushback.

As one massive, united, and peaceful community, we will stand up and demand an end to the current restrictions and authoritarian control measures.

Authoritarian coronavirus restrictions have damaged our lives more than any virus has, and even if the effects of the virus were more damaging, the restrictions to our freedoms would still have been unjust and unlawful.

Our fundamental freedoms have top priority, and we cannot allow them to become constrained, for the sake of the generations that follow us.

We cannot allow our Human Rights to be re-packaged as Human Privileges, to be conditioned upon compliance with Authoritarianism.

As the Freedom Movement develops around the world, a variety of new solutions are rising that will enable people to Take the Power Back.

An International Freedom Movement is emerging that is building alternatives to established power structures, and ways of living.

People are choosing to leave densely populated areas, and forming new communities where they can more effectively govern themselves.

People around the world are saying "Enough Is Enough" and are refusing to comply with overbearing restrictions, and helping others to gain the confidence to begin their journey of non-compliance.

People around the world are making their government serve them again by running against established candidates, with a Grass-Roots Activist Freedom Movement backing them.

Society is pushing back against pervasive and restrictive socially enforced norms. Creative people are making music and art to spread awareness of the rising tide of Freedom Culture.

By using comedy, we can make fun of Authoritarian overreach, point out the blatant hypocrisy of its enforcement, and plant seeds of rebellion in the society around us.

No one can resist the truth, wrapped in a good joke.

By taking back the culture, we can bring more people to the cause of Freedom. The Light of Freedom cannot be extinguished.

Throughout history, Humanity has been tried and tested in difficult times, but in the end, Freedom Always Wins.

We call on all opponents of the Coronavirus Restriction policies of their own government to participate in this World-Wide Demonstration.

Since the beginning of 2020, we have grown together locally and become a part of a broader Freedom Movement around the World.

We have made many new friends, and found that we are not alone in our desire for Freedom.

We have received an overwhelming amount of support from many countries and are collaborating with organizers locally to deploy a wide variety of events.

On September 18th and 19th, 2021, we will all once again demonstrate for our Fundamental Human Rights, for our Constitutionally Protected Freedoms, and for the end of the excessive Coronavirus restriction measures.

KejRaj Report: The Great Shift in Consciousness Era of Light - September 4, 2021

Greetings! From heart to heart in this moment we speak, I am the Radiant One formerly known as Kejraj. The information expressed here is that of my perspective, my point of view. For all truth awaits you in your heart. Tune into the light within you.
*Read the following message out loud.

For millennia humanity continued its descent into the lower realms of Earth, until many reached the lower sub planes of 3D. This occurred due to two things, lack of love, and abundance of fear.

The dark entities, mostly non human in origin, played their games very well, on and off Earth, in manipulating the human collective on many levels. They hand picked their human puppets to run the show on screen. While the masters worked behind the scenes.

Since the fall of Atlantis, all was done to keep humanity not only enslaved, but in the darkest mindset possible. Some of this was done through the will of participants, while some of it was done against the freewill of many. If you read or listen to messages from higher dimensions, they'll tell you it was all done with prior agreement, however, I strongly disagree.

Fast forward a few thousand years, and here we are, on the cusp of the greatest paradigm shift the Universe has ever witnessed. I say the Universe for it is true, humanity and Earth have the attention of many Galactic Civilizations at this time, watching everything unfold here and now. They have been watching and assisting in immense ways. I have said many times, without their help, humanity and Earth would have long perished at the hands of the negative ET's. This would simply not be permitted by the Hierarchy of this Universe, another Garden would not be lost, as it was on Lyra during the Galactic Wars millions of years ago.

The negative ET's and their puppets have stopped at nothing in creating fear and chaos on Earth. There are two things they still fear most. One, being the human being becoming a realized creator, awakening to its true divine origins. Two, the humans of Earth being more open, finally knowing, and accepting the fact that they are not alone in this Universe, they have friends and family near by in the stars. The humans are descendants of these Galactic beings, hailing from the Pleiades, Andromeda, Sirius, Lyra, and so on.

The energies from the Galactic Center which have been blasting the Earth for many decades now, and only continue to increase in intensity, have changed the path of humanity, away from a destructive one, towards a peaceful future.

With these new energies, new alignments of the star bodies, template downloads, come higher activations of DNA, expansion in consciousness, and humanity remembering their natural abilities, such as telepathy, natural healing, teleportation, and so on.

The revealing of higher truths, including the existence of ET's, humanity's true origins, advanced technologies, and where this world is headed (upliftment to the 5th dimension), are to gain a much larger audience in the months ahead. As we stated above, the flow of photonic light from the Great Central Sun is only increasing. This is affecting everything on Earth at one level or another, including those who seem to be most asleep, their soul is nudging them to wake up. It is truly time for humanity to rise with Mother Earth, and shift into a reality of paradise. A world where light, love, peace, abundance, and unity are the dominant energies.

From heart to heart, I am the Radiant One.

Overcoming Fear and Anxiety

The Arcturian Group via Marilyn Raffael - Sept. 5, 2021

Dear readers, welcome. Our messages flow to you with love and the intention of bringing guidance and enlightenment to all who resonate with them.

All is proceeding according to plan, unfolding as it must in order to bring greater awareness to the presence of countless commonly accepted agendas based in separation. Exposure is serving to open eyes of a three dimensional majority to the pain and suffering that has and still is resulting from many laws and societal concepts.

The floods, fires, hurricanes are energy. Energies of suffering, war, violence, and all activities based in separation that have long been somewhat dormant but still present. These energies are now surfacing and clearing and in the process are forcing many who have lived happily in a state of disconnect from nature and other people to begin thinking about planet earth, all forms of life on her, and how everything is connected.

Some not all, who are experiencing destructive events at this time chose to have the experience as a part of their learning process (their spiritual "bucket list" so to speak) while others choose to be a part of these types of events because they provide opportunities for love and service to others. The vast majority however, are spiritually ready for more but need experiences that will force them out of complacency and into deeper inner examination.

HOWEVER. . . know that . . .

God does not, can not form ITSelf as destructive activity. Extreme destructive events are formed out of the collective belief in separation and its resulting fear. Remember, you are creators.

Be patient and try not to judge what you are presently seeing and hearing from all forms of media for it is almost always based in three dimensional beliefs and concepts about how things must be in order to be right or correct. This is where trusting your intuition becomes very important.

Fear has become the world's dominant emotion at this time. Become alert to and aware of how you are propagandized into fear on multiple levels. Even the most basic and simple ads tell you that if you do not use their product something bad will happen. The news in all its forms is almost 100% based in some form of fear which when accepted becomes your state of consciousness and may or may not express in some way.

Recognize the many forms through which fear presents itself--rules, regulations, news, concepts, collective beliefs, teachings-religious and otherwise, and traditions, all carrying various levels of fear based belief which over time have become fully ingrained in and as the collective consciousness.

Fear always arises from the belief in separation, that one is separate from their physical, emotional, mental, or spiritual good unless they believe this way, act this way, do this or do that, as dictated by individuals and groups who claim to have superior knowledge. In reality much of what they espouse is simply a reflection of collective concepts formed over time by the majority belief in two powers, duality, and separation.

Fear is an illusion dear ones, a dense fog formed of nothing but the illusion of separation. Those who realize that they and all life forms are Divine consciousness in expression are serving to dissolve this ancient heavy fog through the presence of the higher resonating Light they carry in their consciousness. Many very evolved souls are now incarnating in order to add the high resonating Light of their consciousness to earth's ascension process.

It is difficult to stop fearing because fear has served well in its ability to alert individuals to dangerous situations. Learn to determine the difference between the voice of intuition guiding you and unsubstantiated fear. Do not resist fear when it presents itself in one form or another but simply recognize it and determine for yourself whether what you are feeling is valid or not.

Be alert to the subtle messages embedded in commercial ads and "for your own good" statements that flow to you through all forms of media. You will soon begin to recognize the underlying fear based concepts being presented for you to read, observe, and then accept as your reality. The promoters of these things are not always trying to trick or bring fear to you for they are often unaware that they are promoting fear and believe they are helping others or that their promotions simply represent good business.

Fear is subliminal and takes many forms all of which are present in the collective and available to anyone in alignment with their particular energy. Many of you are experiencing fear and anxiety at this time and don't know why. Because there is only ONE, everyone is receptive to the energies of the collective at some time or another. Know that fear, anxiety, or any other negative energies are never personally yours. It is only if or when you claim them to be personally yours, that they then become yours.

This does not mean that those who are spiritually awake should ignore the practical everyday issues of life that are in need of attention, but rather means doing what you are guided to do while not endowing situations with power for good or bad. No one can live the absolute until it becomes their attained state of consciousness which is what spiritual evolution is all about. Trust that your Higher Self is drawing to you what you need in order to learn and evolve even if the experiences you are having don't seem very positive or spiritual.

We have often spoken to the need for releasing dependence on spiritual/metaphysical tools. We would like to clarify that this does not mean you can no longer own and love the crystals, oils, sounds, etc. that you have come to love over the course of your spiritual journey. When we say release the tools, we mean that there comes a point in every person's spiritual journey at which they must cease giving these things a power greater than their own in the belief that they have the ability to give you something that you don't already have within you.

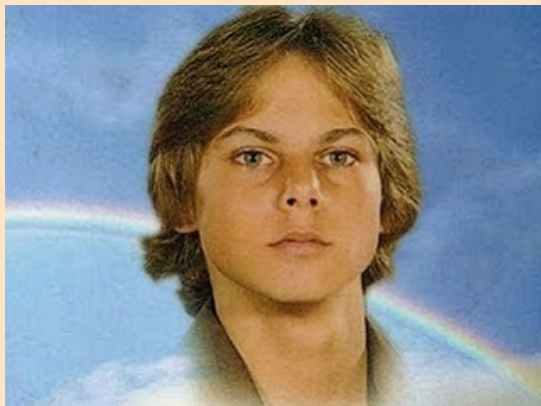

Crystals, sound vibration, color, oils are all powerful tools for balancing energy (healing) and were the major focus in ancient the healing temples where many of you worked. Each crystal, oil, or sound carries its own unique energy which then can augment and activate that same energy lying dormant but already fully present within an individual.

Always remember that spiritual tools do not, never have, and never can give you something that you don't already have. Use them and love them, but never lose sight of the fact that they are in and of the same energy as you because there is only ONE whether it is manifesting ITself as a person, crystal, animal or tree.

Relax into the process. Spiritual evolution for eons has been based on effort, practices, and activities of one sort or another meant to make the person more "spiritual" or closer to God. It is time to let all that go because these types of beliefs are obsolete and no longer relevant once you become aware of the fact that God is already fully present within. Relax, cease the struggle and allow yourself to be what you already are.

Never fear change for change is the process through which ordinary living becomes kinder, fairer, better, easier, more evolved and loving.

There is much to come dear ones. Be patient as dark rises to the surface in order to be seen and recognized by the majority. Know and trust that there is a Divine plan and that you chose to be a part of it. Allow, knowing that everything is as it needs to be. We are the Arcturian Group.

Spirit Guide
Matthew Ward
Monthly
Ascension Report

Channeled by Susan Ward - September 3, 2021

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. Mainstream media are reporting dramatic happenings in your world, and while those are of monumental importance to everyone who is directly affected and to all caring persons, what is quietly going on behind the scenes has significance for the entire population.

It is not our prerogative to speak about actions that are destroying the darkness' last toeholds—those will be made known by appropriate individuals when the time is right in their thinking. What we can tell you that is so very encouraging is what we are seeing in Earth's energy field of potential, which reflects the civilization's collective thoughts, feelings and actions as well as the energy emitted by all other life forms on the planet.

Intensifying light was steadily uprooting activities of the Illuminati until they released the coronavirus-19. Harsh restrictions, business closures, financial hardships, and vastly inflated statistics produced the mass of fear energy that refueled the foundering dark ones, and the energy field became an entanglement of chaotic streamers with light and dark attachments vying for dominance. Although that did not delay Earth's ascension progress, there was no clarity in the tumultuous field as to when the streamers with light would regain strength to surge forward again and uplift the populace. In the continuum it is perfectly clear— the light won, Earth is restored to her original health and beauty, and the peaceful civilization is joyously thriving in health and prosperity.

But when the struggle to manifest that ideal world went back into full force on the planet more than a year and a half ago, lightworkers were tossed back into the emotional trenches, so to say, and many of you started wondering if you really have been making a difference. Are Earth's peoples awakening, are situations improving, is darkness really being vanquished? Dear family, absolutely you have been and are making a world of difference— literally! Yes, the peoples are awakening, situations are moving toward essential change, and the darkness definitely is being vanquished! Far from being a victory for them, the “pandemic” is their undoing.

Now then, returning to the field of potential, recently streamers shimmering with light-filled attachments broke out of the entanglement and are gaining serious steam. They are zigzagging their way to unstoppable momentum as streamers with dark attachments are fast decreasing in number and strength. As tenacious as the Illuminati are, they cannot remain hidden as the light exposing them keeps growing brighter and brighter. They—and their proliferation of lies—cannot stand without the compliance of an unquestioning, frightened populace, and for a while that's what they had. What they have now is growing numbers of fearless, defiant people who did question and concluded no more lockdowns, no more masks, no more vaccinations, no more control over us.

How we wish we could tell you when the truth about so-called vaccines, so-called “Delta variant”— everything related to the “pandemic”—will come forth. The Illuminati's grasp on mainstream media and Internet censorship are cracking, but not yet enough so that facts can replace the false “official” information. To be sure, that will come. And, to all who have been vaccinated, we say please do not feel fearful about future health issues. It is true that potential exists, but keep foremost in your thoughts that light is your immune system's best ally, and as God told my mother, absorbing light is as simple as being kind.

The eyes of the world are on the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan, hearts around the world are with the people of that country. Indeed, the situation could have been managed much differently, with wisdom, foresight and compassion. What is occurring is a great sadness for us because the people of that country are facing dire living conditions under stern control, and for some, execution. No, this is not a matter of completing chosen karmic lessons. For some individuals, the flexibility in soul contracts can be applied, but most are and will be enduring experiences they did not choose, and none of them will know until they are in Nirvana that this gave them a leap forward in soul evolvment.

It is true that the corrupt government had to be unseated and occupation troops withdrawn so Afghans can set a course toward stability, cooperation and prosperity in a peaceful nation. That seems a slim hope in this moment, and it won't come soon, but come it shall. The power of light's vibrations eventually will heal wounds and unify the citizens in their common interest, love of family and country.

All peoples need to know that when any government sends troops into another country to "secure freedom for its citizens" or "nation-building," always it is for self-serving purposes. Never is it without bloodshed and exploitation, and when troops are withdrawn, the country is left in shambles. Ever-rising vibrations assure that never again will this happen on Earth!

The importance of evidence coming forth about the fraudulent United States presidential election is twofold. The society needs to know that elections are manipulated by the Illuminati so they can control governments, and for two centuries, elections in that country and numerous others have been stolen by one means or another. This is why life on Earth has been in accordance with the Illuminati's goal of world domination.

Second, and this also has worldwide impact, it will change the United States' form of governance. Shortly after the colonies united, British royalty and others in the Rothschild faction of the Illuminati secretly organized that nascent nation into a corporation, which they own. After a republic form of government is established in accordance with the country's constitution, the legislation originally known as NESARA, now as G/NESARA or GESARA, can be implemented. By ending impoverishment for the masses and massive fortunes for a few, it is the economic basis of world transformation.

In previous messages we have said we are not financial advisers, and that is true. However, to some extent we can answer your questions about what will happen when the global economic system based on precious metals is put into operation. We don't know when that will take place, but we do know the transition from the current system to the new will be handled as smoothly as possible to minimize inconvenience and confusion.

Money in checking and savings accounts in banks and credit unions will be secure because they're in "brick and mortar" institutions, so to say. Although the major banking system is in Illuminati hands, terminating myriad accounts would require more time than they have. It's likely that those institutions will close briefly during implementation of the new system.

Arrangements will be made so workers' earnings paid into government retirement accounts will be safeguarded and payments made to entitled recipients, and funds will be available for disability compensation and welfare provisions. A short delay in processing all of those payments is likely.

We don't know exactly how investments and pension-funding tied to stock markets will be affected because they are continuously strategically manipulated up and down by the Illuminati. An interruption in payments is probable as the markets are taken out of their control and stabilized.

Credit cards with usurious interest rates are another tool of the Illuminati, intended to motivate spending beyond one's means and create a population stressed by heavy debt. We don't know if cards will continue to be a purchasing method—to be sure, charging is a convenience when used judiciously—or replaced by another form.

Cryptocurrency also was devised by the Illuminati and is under their control. With a few computer data entries, all forms of that currency can be deleted—do not depend on “guaranteed anonymity” to save those accounts. It would be sensible to consider using those funds however they will best serve you instead of depending on them to be available for a long time.

One more note about GESARA. Its purpose is to institute a fair, honorable global economic system and bring prosperity throughout your world. It is not designed to give every individual on the planet a large sum of money, as some misinformation about the legislation includes. [ August 26, 2017 message has a comprehensive explanation of the legislation's economic provisions .]

“Do organic foods and vegetarian or vegan diets help in personal ascension?”

Personal ascension, the advancement in spiritual and conscious awareness, comes with absorbing light, so let us talk about how diet affects that. Foods grown without chemicals in fertilizers and insecticides are indeed more healthful, but feeling stressed by the cost of those foods negates their benefits. Stress unbalances health in mind, body and spirit—that dims light within the body and weakens immunity.

Fresh vegetables and fruits are the most nutritious because they contain the most light, and if grains are milled and legumes are treated without toxic chemicals, those also contain a lot of light. When the desired diet and the pocketbook are irreconcilable, give thanks for whatever you eat and intend that it serve your highest good.

Some people feel their bodies need meat, sea food and dairy products to maintain health and others feel their bodies are healthier without those foods, but far beyond diet is how animals are treated. Animals in the food chain have a soul level agreement with humankind to provide nourishment in return for gratitude, respect and caring treatment during their lifetimes and to die with gentleness and dignity.

Not only has “factory farming” egregiously violated humans' part of that agreement, down through the ages, other animals, domesticated and wild, have been treated brutally, too. It was peoples' relentless inhumanity to each other and the animals that caused planet Earth to spiral from high fifth density into deep third density and be mired there for millennia.

Souls that embody as animals have a wide range of intelligence and emotions, and their families love each other just as you love yours. When they experience trauma in living and dying circumstances, that energy stays in their bodies and psyches, and when they enter Nirvana, they require and are given the same customized healing that traumatized persons need and receive.

As integral parts of Creator's unconditional love energy, every life in your animal and plant kingdoms is a soul with varying degrees of consciousness. Species-wide, the cetaceans are the most consciously and spiritually evolved souls on Earth—they volunteered to incarnate there in large forms to anchor in ocean depths the light beamed from distant civilizations. And think about the plant kingdom. Each seed knows when to start growing and what to become—grass, tree, flower, fruit, grain or vegetable—and each adds immeasurable quality to your life and to all other souls' there.

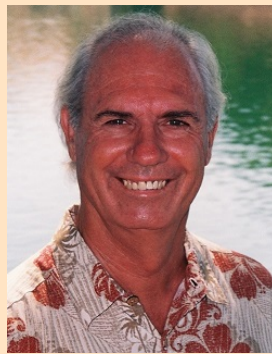

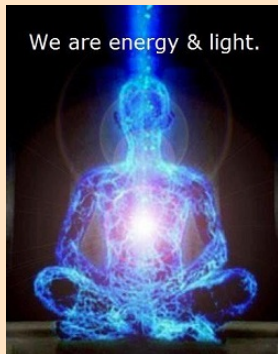

Perhaps especially in unsettling times such as this moment, it can be easy to forget that you affect and are affected by every other life on Earth. Living in consonance with this awareness contributes to the betterment of all lives with whom you are sharing the planet— this is personal ascension and evolution of the civilization!

Beloved sisters and brothers, your steadfastness in your mission has been invaluable in helping Earth's peoples "see the light" so they can manifest the world they want where life is peaceful, harmonious and loving. All light beings in this universe honor you and support you with the power of unconditional love.
