

On the Doorstep of Change

The Arcturian Council via Kate Woodley - January 24, 2022

Hello our dear ones. We are the Arcturians along with many members of the Arcturian Council. We are honored and delighted as always to connect with all of you.

It is a privilege for us to not only witness humanity's ongoing evolution, but to be a part of it in any way possible. You are truly at the precipice of a new era. It is as if though, you are at the doorstep of great change. But as you approach this doorstep, and the door begins to open, it shines upon you a new light, a light not seen or felt before. This new light, our dear ones, is bathing you in a universal love, in a universal light that will act for each of you as a catalyst, as a key, if you will, to help open you up to more and more energy, guidance, and information that is dawning upon your Earth at this time.

The Seeds of Change have been Sowed

This new light that is shining upon you is rich with information. Information that on some levels is from such a high consciousness. It is at this point being anchored in your subconscious and unconscious levels. But like seeds, this information is going to groom and nurture you. It will serve to guide you as you further develop as you expand your consciousness.

Like all seeds, it is difficult to know how it will grow. But you must know and trust that it will grow into the being that it is meant to be for humanity. This is the dawning of a higher collective consciousness. For some, it is the beginning of an awareness that they are part of a unified, loving force, a unified consciousness. For those of you who perhaps are a little bit further along in your journey of spiritual evolution, it is going to act as a key to help bring about more innate abilities that will help propagate and accelerate your expansion. But that will also enable you to serve as catalysts in the growth and awakening of those around you.

The light that you each perpetuate has a ripple effect. As we and many other higher beings have indicated, all spiritual evolution begins within each of you. This is where the change must first be seen and felt. You must learn to see and experience life through a lens and filter of love and higher perspective. Once this becomes second nature to you, you begin to guide and teach others to do this for themselves. This is how the great propagation of higher consciousness evolves. And as more and more of you continue to expand and open up, it has a beautiful impact on all those around you.

There are many seeds of change that are happening at a societal level. We understand that on the surface, there appears and feels to be much chaos. But understand that with all growth, there can be a time of natural chaos and unpredictability. It takes us back to the analogy of the seed. These seeds of change are now beginning to unravel, to crack open. And what is beginning to emerge is not yet discernible for you as a collective. But you must trust the growth. And as long as you continue to nurture these seeds with love and joy, they will grow and emanate in love and joy and they will reflect back to you in love and joy. That is, be the change, feel the change, and propel the change that you desire to see and experience in those around you as well as society at large.

Evolution is Accelerating

This momentum, our dear ones, it cannot and will not be stopped. Like all momentum, there is a time of adjustment to change and to the speed at which time is accelerating. That is to say that some of these changes will appear rather quickly. Like others, it is a slow growing seed, but nonetheless equally powerful and meaningful.

Trust that all is unfolding in accordance with divine timing. Trust that you are all being guided.

We will invite you, as we close this message, we invite you all to look upon all change as an opportunity, a window through which perhaps the view on the other side is not yet clear, but you are beginning to crack open these blurred windows. And as you slowly open them, you will learn to see further and further. You will learn to see beyond the week, month, or year ahead and you will look out into the great horizon of long-term potential and change. This is the destination that we invite you to gaze your eyes and your hearts upon.

Take heart, our dear friends. You are on the precipice of beautiful change. We stand with you with love and guidance. The Arcturian Council.

Divine Mother Birthing

Archangel Amethyst via Natalie Glasson - January 28, 2022

Sacred School of OmNa

Greetings and love, I am Archangel Amethyst, I come forth with a light and vibration of clarity, clearness, and expansion. I bring forth with me, the crystalline and the angelic vibrations to merge and synthesise, creating the most beautiful energy bath for you to exist within. Allow yourself to absorb the energy I am expressing to you now.

Clarity, clearness, and expansion are immensely important in the ascension process now. It gives you space and time to reflect, to create with the immense currents and rivers of light flowing into your being, activating wisdom within your cells. There is much to contemplate. Clearness, clarity, and expansion, all support your connection with the wisdom that is evolving from within your being now.

I, Archangel Amethyst wish to come forth and share with you something that is happening between the Earth and the Inner Planes, it is a very beautiful process. Mother Earth, the Guardian of the Earth is synthesising with the Divine Mother Energies. The highest frequency of Divine Mother energies is merging and over lighting Mother Earth currently.

Mother Earth as the soul, the spirit is receiving this tremendous nourishment, an upgrade of light codes activating further the Divine Mother energies of the Creator within Mother Earth. This is an ascension process for Mother Earth. Mother Earth is being assisted by the Divine Mother energies of the inner planes, the Goddess vibration of the highest realm. Mother Earth will benefit tremendously from this activation and synthesis. Upgrades in Mother Earth's energies and the Divine Mother energies will be radiated across the Earth, to all beings.

You may notice yourself wishing to connect with or honour Mother Earth, or your own inner Goddess energies, whether you are in a female or male body activating, coming forth to be welcomed and acknowledged. There is a far greater ascension opportunity that is occurring in this moment due to the synthesis of Mother Earth and the Divine Mother.

As the Divine Mother sits within the energy of Mother Earth, this creates an incubator. It is a collection of energy, of Mother Earth's energy and the Divine Mother's energy or Goddess energy. You have the opportunity as does, every being upon the Earth to enter this incubator. Within the synthesised light of the incubator, you can plant seeds of that which you wish to create, your biggest, your greatest, your most fulfilling dream, goal or aspiration.

What is the one thing that you wish to create in this reality upon the Earth for yourself?

What is the one thing that you wish to experience?

With the synthesis of Mother Earth and the Divine Mother Goddess energies, an incubator is created that is alive, that is active. If you place yourself and your intention into that incubator, you can plant seeds, you can really ground your dream, goal or aspiration and bring it into fruition. It is almost like you enter a trinity creating this dream with Mother Earth and the Goddess vibration.

After you have entered the incubator and you have planted that seed, you have created the dream, the desire, you will be invited to let it go, to detach from it. As if you are watching it drift away and yet you hold a firm knowingness that the dream, or desire has been created and is in the process of fruition? This is an immense opportunity of co-creating, bringing yourself into alignment with the next stage of your ascension and with your ultimate self upon the Earth.

In meditation or quiet time, you may call upon me, Archangel Amethyst to be your guide. I will surround you in violet light, cleansing your energy and preparing you for the process.

Then ask to connect to and be transported to Mother Earth's Incubator. Mother Earth has merged and is being over lighted by the Goddess energies. This is creating a womb for you to enter of sacred Mother Earth grounding energies, nurturing energies and Goddess Divine Mother energies. It is a very welcoming and warming space and you may feel yourself surrounded by this energy.

We invite you to hold with clarity your intention of that which you wish to manifest. You can visualise it, you can think about it, you can talk about it, and you can feel it. Take as long as you wish and enjoy the process. Enjoy the energies that you are absorbing as well from Mother Earth and the Divine Mother.

When the process is complete, you may ask Mother Earth, the Divine Mother, myself Archangel Amethyst to ground you and to ground your creation.

Then imagine that you let go of your creation, almost watching it float away and holding the knowingness that it is in fruition, that it has already manifested. Then when you are ready, you can ask me Archangel Amethyst to transport you back to your physical reality.

This is a very, very special time of creating. It is now time to create with the Goddess and Mother Earth. We thank you; we love you, I am Archangel Amethyst.

The February 2022 Energies

The 9D Arcturian Council via Daniel Scranton - January 30, 2022
www.DanielScranton.com

"Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you. We are very pleased to offer you this transmission about the upcoming transmission of energies in and throughout your month of February. The February energies are about getting you into alignment, specifically your chakras, as the more in alignment you are, the more capable you will be in handling the March energies.

But there are many other reasons why you would want to have your chakras and all of your various bodies aligned. You are constantly running energies through your bodies. You are constantly seeking to download more, to activate more, to attune to more that is coming your way. We are talking about energies you have summoned and energies that are just there to support you and that have come from above.

Beings and collectives, like ourselves, also want to be channeled because they want their perspective to be a part of the human experience and the human evolution of consciousness. And so, having your chakras open and aligned will certainly help you to achieve that. Those of you who want to channel, who have not yet been able to, or who are struggling with your channeling, will benefit from these February energies because of the alignment they bring. And with that alignment comes greater clarity, a clear central channel, and better use of the energies that you are getting.

As we said, you are constantly receiving energies, but the question is, are you open to them? Are you ready for them? Can you ground them? All right, that was several questions, but you get the idea. It's important to have these aligned chakras for many, many reasons, and with the energies coming in March, having had some practice grounding higher-frequency energies into your chakras will certainly help with what is to come.

There's always going to be a need for greater communion with the non-physical and with the higher-frequency energies. And so, this type of alignment that will be occurring in the month of February is always something wanted, something needed, and something powerful.

Now, you might be wondering what you have to do in order ready yourselves for these aligning energies of February. It's always a good idea to be hydrated and grounded, but it is especially a good idea when you know that there are energies coming in that you want to connect with and run through your physical body. Also, do regular check-ins with your chakras to see where they are.

Can you feel one being heavier, off-center, blocked? Can you feel a lot of emotions in one? Those are the chakras to give your attention to and to lovingly send light and healing energies. You can also use the power that you have to visualize to align, open, clear, and cleanse the chakra or chakras in question.

And make sure you're getting plenty of rest, sleep, relaxation, meditation, and spending time in a state of joy, appreciation, or at least feeling neutral. In other words, feel as good as you can feel under the conditions you are living in at this time, and realize that more is always coming because your prayers are always answered.

We are here to help, and so are so many other teams, collectives, councils, and individual beings of light and love. And offering you this high-frequency collective of energies is how we work together to ensure that humanity has all that you need all the time. We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you."

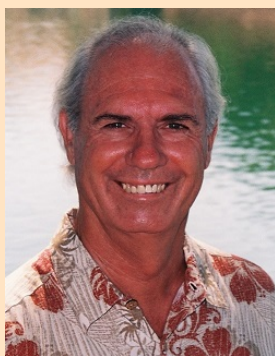

Change in Publication Days
By Reverend Dennis - January 30, 2022

A lot of breaking news coming in now from both spiritual sources and especially the Canadian Trucker's Freedom Convoy. That's why you are receiving this update today. I'm considering to publish a second update on Sunday or Monday. I've noticed that many of the items in the weekly newsletter are almost out-of-date when they reach you. Just might have to go to twice a week publishing schedule.

Also, I need to shift the Benjamin Fulford report to a Thursday, as this is the day he allows his report to be distributed throughout the world, freely. It's published every Monday for subscribers; reserved for the next two days, and then released on Thursdays to the world. So, you'll receive the Fulford report on Thursday.
