No WW3, No Holographic ET Invasion

Matthew Ward via Susan Ward - March 3, 2022
www.MatthewBooks.com

With loving greetings from all souls at this station, this is Matthew. Let us begin with the assurance that all major happenings are right on target with the divine plan to liberate Earth from all vestiges of darkness. Although much of the action still is behind the scenes, some is quite obvious, but the public doesn't recognize it as the significant progress it is. Such is the case of Russia and Ukraine.

As mentioned in a previous message, the person seen as Vladimir Putin is the look-alike double who replaced the Russian president about two years ago when the Illuminati finally were able to assassinate Putin because he consistently refused to cooperate with them. They portrayed him in mainstream media as a murderous dictator because he eliminated their operatives in Russia and they accused him of horrible things they themselves did. What is important in this moment is that the double, initially one of the Rothschild puppets, now is working with and protected by the light forces.

Russians are not wantonly bombing cities as reported by mainstream media and often depicted by old or photo-shopped photos and film clips. They are destroying laboratories that produce and store bioweaponry and other Illuminati entrenchments, but like most of the rest of the world's people, the Ukrainians don't know that and they are frightened, anxious and sad. Even if they knew about the strategic targets, explosions and foreign troops still would be traumatizing.

Later on they will know the truth about what is happening, and some among the hundreds of thousands who are leaving the country already do—they have been working with the Illuminati. In time, all peoples will know that what some say is "an unprovoked war" or "a dangerous invasion" has another purpose, too. It will reunify a population that was separated when new borders were established to put regions with abundant natural resources under the control of Illuminati-installed "democratic" governance.

The United States president seen publicly also is a look-alike double and he has to say and do whatever he is told, including advocating that everyone be vaccinated. Far from having the results the Illuminati want, demands to end all "pandemic" requirements are quickly expanding in that country and many others, and leaders who haven't yet succumbed to public pressure, will in a short time. The peoples are fed up with mandates that are damaging psychologically, economically, academically and, as medical specialists are rightly saying, health-wise.

Another timely item on the Illuminati agenda is a world war, and they are pushing their puppet national leaders to escalate the Russian-Ukrainian conflict. This plan will not succeed, either. There will be no WWIII.

The drama of technologically-produced effects during opening and closing ceremonies of the Olympics has motivated the Illuminati to consider something else on their agenda, the illusion that an extraterrestrial civilization is invading Earth. So, what we said some time ago bears repeating: We have been told they no longer control the technology required to produce a holographic invasion, but if that is attempted, universal family members will turn it into spectacular entertainment.

“Please ask Matthew what God meant by ‘The roadway will have potholes and bumps here and there...’” Ordinarily we would not be so presumptuous as to expound upon God’s words, but we know what he was referring to and have his permission to speak about the “potholes and bumps.”

As you can imagine, some pertain to what is happening in Ukraine and how that may play out. There could be another false claim about a new virus variant that results in another lockdown; if defiance were to turn violent, national leaders could declare martial law to restore order. To incite fear and all-out rebellion, mainstream media could call it military coups overturning legitimate governments.

Attempting to vaccinate the world’s population could become harsher than heretofore, and if that aroused armed resistance, it also could lead to martial law and the likelihood of the same media outcry. Governmental policies could result in mass rioting between opponents and supporters, and if any major changes from what is familiar seem ominous to the populace, widespread reactions could be troublesome.

Except for the current situation in Ukraine, the aforementioned situations are only possibilities. It is the energy of billions of thoughts, feelings and actions that will determine what is to come day by day, and, dear family, whatever that may be, you are well prepared to handle it fearlessly and help others deal with it. Please keep in mind what else God said: “... when you feel like the powerful multidimensional family members you are, happenings will hum right along.”

“Who selects volunteers and what are the criteria? Do they know that’s why they’re here? How many are there? Is each given a specific mission? Are all performing their missions well? Do they live longer than other people’? How many are in ET special forces? How do they differ from other volunteers?”

First let us say, love is why spiritually and consciously evolved souls leave their homelands and incarnate on Earth to help these members of our universal family who have been living in the darkness of control, deception and atrocities. It is a testament to the powerful extensiveness of love that far more souls volunteer than are needed.

Now then, members of the highest universal council select souls that have had many lifetimes helping third density civilizations, thus have the experience and inner strength to manage what they know awaits. But, just as it is with every soul that incarnates in third density, volunteers forget at conscious level what is known at soul level and they have no idea about a mission. However, they are consciously aligned with their souls’ messages—intuition, instinct, conscience, inspiration and aspiration. Most heed that strong guidance and make free will choices in line with their missions, albeit without awareness that they are.

They number in the many millions throughout the world—we don't know the exact figure—and the majority don't think of themselves as lightworkers, lightwarriors or starseeds, terms most often used to designate volunteers. When the earliest group came nigh onto a century ago, darkness blanketed the planet. As the arrivals became older and felt they had "a purpose," so to say, it was difficult for them to do anything except BE the light and, with rare exceptions, that is all missions called for back then.

Most still do. Light in abundance is continuously needed to raise the collective consciousness of a third density civilization, and all volunteers have the opportunity to benefit the society by living from the heart—God said, "The heart is the seat of the soul"—thereby beneficially influencing people whose lives they touch. However, some souls' cumulative lifetime experiencing prepares them for specific roles such as community or regional leaders, judges, engineers, scientists, teachers, visionary medical personnel, inventors, artists, investigative journalists, or innovative entrepreneurs. That doesn't mean everyone in those various fields is a volunteer, but those who aren't may be advancing in evolvment by accomplishing what they chose in soul contracts.

It is much easier at the time of volunteering to feel confident about performing well in specific positions than it is to live in a third density world with its many obstacles and temptations, and some souls strayed from their missions by putting undue importance on financial gain, acquisitions, social status or fame. Not only did that seriously dim their light, but instead of influencing others in positive ways, their lives exemplified the opposite and persons who admired their success emulated them. The souls who have transitioned lament their choices, and the hope of all light beings is that those on Earth who likewise strayed will "see the light" and return to their missions.

Volunteers come from civilizations where physical lifetimes can be a thousand years or longer. In some cases, individuals have a farewell celebration with family and friends, then dematerialize their bodies and the souls incarnate in a civilization where they can further advance in awareness. But on Earth, bodies of volunteers become ill, age and die, and the souls' contracts contain a life span choice, so there is frequent turnover in the ranks.

When they transition to spirit life, myriad others remain and new ones arrive. Almost always that is by birth, but now and then they come as adults who aren't seen publicly during the short time their bodies are adjusting to Earth's lower frequencies. In these few cases, all documentation needed to establish a lifetime history is put into place so the persons can integrate into the population without question as to their background and qualifications. They come to replace members of the extraterrestrial special forces who transition or because their expertise in many fields and fluency in numerous languages will facilitate planning or negotiating international matters.

Members of the force number in the thousands and they're stationed around the world wherever they are needed. In addition to the great difference in size of this group and the other volunteers and the occasional arrival of an adult, souls in the force also differ in other ways. All come from the most highly evolved civilizations, where they held responsible positions. They know who they are and none has ever strayed from his or her mission.

They retain their innate abilities of manifestation; dematerialization; teleportation; astral travel; telepathic communication; being present in spirit only, thus invisible to bystanders; and "reading" thoughts of others, nearby or distant. Those extraordinary abilities—that is, in persons on Earth—enable these volunteers to be especially valuable in intelligence agencies, the sciences, medical laboratories, information analysis, military forces and governments.

And, a few are prodigies, which shouldn't be surprising, and a few are what you call illusionists. That may seem a frivolous mission, but it is purposeful—by walking through a brick wall or producing an automobile out of thin air, for instance, they are showing these are possible. Thoughts about any possibility precede developing—more accurately, activating—the ability to accomplish it, and those entertainers are stimulating their audiences to contemplate how such feats can be managed. You could say they are the wayshowers to Earth's peoples discovering their own innate capabilities.

Let us add that it is members of the special forces who reduced the toxicity in “vaccines” and erased the programming in the chips as well as preventing detonation of missiles’ nuclear warheads and causing other weapons to malfunction. Of particular importance to us, they are our information sources on the planet about what is happening there.

Regardless of the capacity in which volunteers are serving, they are indispensable helpers to Earth's civilization. The love-light energy they radiate by BEing there is stirring the peoples to awaken and make their world what they want it to be.

Beloved brothers and sisters, all light beings in this universe honor you for steadfastness in your mission and support you with the power of unconditional love.

Galactic Intervention Signals Disclosure & No Nuclear War

Ashtar Sharon via Sharon Stewart - March 3, 2022

www.SharonAndIvo.Weebly.com

Sharon's Notes: Putin has moved his family into an underground nuclear city designed to survive nuclear war. The Deep State (DS) is out to vilify Putin as the next Hitler, who was their creation anyway, and make themselves out to be the good guys. THEY ALWAYS DO THIS. This is a consistent tactic they have used in every one of their campaigns. That's how they trick so many naive people, but we're smarter than that. They vilify anyone who opposes them. First, it was Trump. Now it's Putin.

Ashtar Sharon: If they start a full-scale nuclear war, we will intervene. And we, the Galactic Federation of Light (GFL), will take the opportunity to show ourselves as the ones who save planet earth. That will be the moment of disclosure.

The draconians got in our way. However, we can break into any channel we want. The Deep State will still not be vanquished. All will carry on. However, we of the GFL will have a more “hands-on” position in your politics.

Yes, plans have changed. You asked for us to intervene. We have no desire to see Earth blown up by satanists. Their other programs will continue, and you will be expected to deal with them, as has always been the case. We will intervene if there's no other way. We're watching this play out. Looking on with concern but we knew it would come to this. Please get this message out. Adonai.

Khazarian Mafia Killing Innocent People in Ukraine

Mira channeled by Erena Velazquez - March 5, 2022

Published on Voyages of Light.blogspot.com

Greetings, I am Mira, the Pleiadian High Council, and I am here to speak to your civilization about the recent events on your planet Earth. Right now, you have a big concern about what is happening between Ukraine and Russia. I can assure you one thing that the picture about this conflict has not been disclosed truthfully by the Media and your governments.

The truth is twisted about the situation there. I usually stay away from discussing political events on Mother Earth, but today I feel it's my duty as the Pleiadian High Council to tell humankind, that you are again being mislead by the leaders and the journalists around the world. Do you think you can trust any of them?

This war is between Light and Darkness In Ukraine to set things up right and stop killing innocent people. The Khazarian mafia is desperate to be in power, so they are killing civilian people. It's losing in the fight against the Light, so it's trying to start World War 3. This is not going to happen. The Earth's vibrations are high, and the Darkness can't survive in positive energies. The Corrupted Souls are dying from their own sword.

Your focus needs to be on you; raise your vibrations with meditations and ask your soul for answers. All of these events need to occur in order to crash 3D illusion and to create a foundation for a New World. Please, be prepared for more events and truths that are coming your way in the near future. The Awakening continues, and more and more humans want to be free and happy. The tyrannical controllers are getting exposed left and right, and their end is very close.

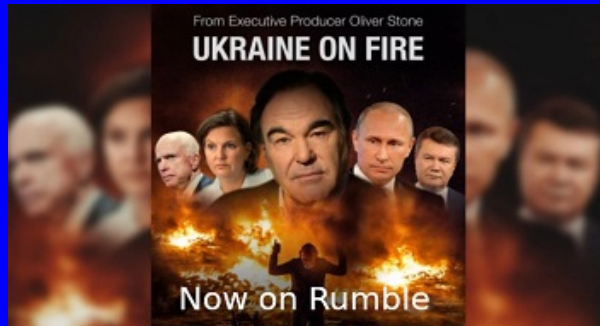

I am very sad for Canadian Truckers, who got crushed and betrayed by their own government. They are suppose to serve people's interests. In my reality we don't have any governments, as we know that they don't work. We select the counselors, and if they don't perform as expected, we replace them with new ones. I am sending a lot of Light and Love to American Truckers.

I love Mother Earth, she looks so beautiful from my ship's window. My team is observing your planet. We are not allowed to interfere in your fight, unless the whole planet is in danger, then Ashtar would step in with his fleet.

Let go of the attachments such as judgment, anxiety, anger, jealousy and etc, and free yourself from these draining emotions by grounding and connecting with Mother Nature. To resolve your concerns and confusions listen your heart. Please, never forget that we are all connected. The space, time and the dimension can't separate us as we are one big family. We are One.

Open yourselves to embrace the energies of the Cosmos. Sending a lot of Love to my Brothers and Sisters on the Earth plane. Thank you Universal Channel. Mira.

The Atlantis Heritage

Yeshua (Jesus) via Pamela Kribbe - February 22, 2022

Excerpts from the article at www.BlissfulVisions.com

A very long article but well worth the read.

Yeshua (Jesus): I am taking you to the time of your birth as an individual soul, as a separate 'I'. The 'I-ness' that is so familiar to you now, was an altogether new phenomenon in the universe. Being separate and individual, enables you to gather a multitude of experiences, and yes, illusions as well. But that does not make it less valuable. It is precisely in being an 'I', in being separate from the whole, and experiencing the illusions that go with it, that you can discover what is not. You can discover an illusion and experience it from the inside out. At first, this was not possible. At first, there was the One and nothing outside of it, like an undifferentiated ocean of love and oneness. Now try and experience fear and ignorance from in there!

✦ In being vulnerable and prone to illusion, you gather an enormous amount of experience, which enables you to really understand what oneness means, what love means at the level of experience.

You will understand what love is, not as an abstract concept, but as a living, creative force that moves you and fills your heart and spirit with a deep sense of joy and satisfaction. This is the end goal of your journey, the Homecoming you are longing for: to be God-as-you, to experience oneness as an 'I'. You do not want to give up your 'I-ness. It is through the connection of your 'I' with the whole, that you experience the deepest joy and that you add your own unique energy stamp to the whole of creation. God-as-you adds something new and precious to creation.

✦ Atlantis gradually evolved when extraterrestrial races started to invade Earth by actually incarnating in human bodies. These souls in general had a high level of mental development.

Atlantis was a civilization that lies much further back in time than the familiar historical eras. Atlantis gradually came into being about 100,000 years ago and it ended about 10,000 years ago. The first beginnings even predate 100,000 years.

✦ Atlantis was the result of a coming together, a mixture of the native Earth societies and the influx of souls that came from the outside. You, the wave of the lightworker souls, incarnated on Earth because you wished to bring about change and progress and because you wanted to grow yourselves, from an ego-based consciousness to a heart-based consciousness.

Gradually, a new culture came into being on Earth, a civilization that brought forth an unprecedented technological development which affected all parts of society.

I would like to say a little more about the kind of technology that evolved in Atlantis. What you as 'star people' still remembered brightly, despite the veil of forgetfulness, was that you can influence material reality by using the power of your mind, specifically the third eye. The third eye is the energy centre (chakra) of intuition and psychic awareness, and it is located behind your two physical eyes.

The power of the third eye was still very familiar to you in those first incarnations, like a second nature to your soul. You knew 'how it worked'. You knew that matter (physical reality) has a form of consciousness, is consciousness in a certain state of being. Through this essential insight into the oneness of consciousness and matter, you could affect and form matter, by making inner contact with the consciousness in the piece of matter. In this way, you could literally move matter, manipulate it from the mind.

✦ You knew a secret that was forgotten in more recent times.

Presently, you see matter (physical reality) as separated from consciousness (the mind). Influenced by modern science, you have forgotten that all beings are ensouled: all that is has some form of consciousness that you can connect with and cooperate with in a creative way. This knowledge was self-evident to you in those ancient times.

✦ But during Atlantis, when your heart centers had not been awakened fully, your third eye was predominantly controlled by the center of the will or ego (the solar plexus or third eye chakra).

In the hey-day of Atlantis, there were many possibilities, and the technology was highly advanced, in some areas even more than your present technology, because the power of telepathy and psychic manipulation was much better used and understood. Instantaneous, telepathic communication could take place between different persons at great distance from each other. It was possible to leave your body consciously and travel around. Communication with extraterrestrial civilizations was pursued and effected.

Much became possible during Atlantis, but much went wrong as well.

There generally was a divide between the political-spiritual elite and the 'common people', which were made up of Earth souls predominantly. They were looked upon as inferior beings, means to an end, and they were actually used for genetic experiments that were part of the Atlantean ambition to manipulate life on the biological level, so that more superior life forms could be created.

A positive aspect of the Atlantean society, by the way, was the equality of men and women during that age. The power struggle of man and woman, in which women were horribly oppressed during the last stage, was not a part of Atlantis. The feminine energy was fully respected, especially because it is directly related to the power of the third eye (intuition, clairvoyance, spiritual power).

✦ I wish to take you to the downfall of Atlantis. Energies were at work there that you are still trying to come to terms with. You were deeply involved in what went wrong at that stage.

The Crossroads of Change

Archangel Gabriel via Shelley Young - March 3, 2022

www.TrinityEsoterics.com

Many of you are finding yourselves at a crossroads of change. It may be that you cannot continue on with behaviours that do not honour you or others, or you may find that you cannot continue on with others whose behaviours do not honour you.

If you have found yourself needing to make some serious changes for yourself, we congratulate you on coming to this point! It is likely you have found yourself in a painful place in order to facilitate change. This painful place gets you to realize that what you've been doing isn't working for you and that you simply cannot continue along in the same manner. It is from that space you will open to exploring other options.

If you need to change, the first step is to surrender into the guidance of your higher power. Ask to be shown the next steps and for the right assistance to help you navigate your change. Make your wisest choice, one now moment at a time. Try not to overwhelm yourself by taking on too many things at once. You are building a new foundation for yourself. Look at what is most important for that foundation and start there.

You always have an inner wise one within you. Connect with that part of you. If you don't know how to proceed, if you have a mentor who leads their life in a way you admire, it might help to consider what they would do. If you aren't sure, wait until you have more clarity. If you need professional help be wise enough to reach out for it.

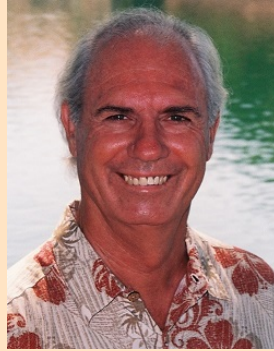

If you need to know if someone has changed in order for it to be safe for you to be around them, it is important to look at their actions, not words. Real change is not instantaneous, but rather the result of becoming more mindful and conscious. Breaking out of old patterns and establishing new, healthier ways of being doesn't happen overnight. It is a process. It is wise to not jump right back in with them but to allow the time for the new ways to become well established. They don't need to be perfect, but they do need to show consistent effort, introspection, self accountability, and a commitment to being better, not just to get a result, but as a preferred expression of who they are.

True and lasting change is a commitment. If you commit to the core values of truth, transparency, integrity, and consistency, and use those as your guiding light one now moment at a time, you will find your way out of the dark night into the discovery of where your soul is trying to lead you, and from there a much more satisfying life expression can be found. Know that your evolution can only take you somewhere better and every forward step you take is a step toward the light. There is much love and guidance for you every bit of the way.
