

The Awakened Galactic Human

The Oneness through Judith K. Moore

Published in Sedona Journal of Emergence - April 2022

Each person has a unique propensity to connect and activate galactic codes that resonate with galactic source. Cosmic souls are beings who have experienced formlessness (our true nature) and form (incarnation). Cosmic souls have awakened consciousness to the divinity of the harmony and rhythm with the galactic core.

The galactic portal is the entrance way through which the solar and lunar pathways flow for the emergence of souls into the vast dimensions of the cosmos. Once souls have emerged in this manner, they carry the cosmic keys, which are the wisdoms of the order of the universe and the consciousness and intelligence of the cosmos.

The galactic human has awakened, and this elevates human consciousness, as within their vibration are keys to existence and the power of Creation. For humanity to evolve beyond a finite existence, the consciousness of the collective reality must explore the alternate dimensions of space and time. The infinite power of galactic source was known to the ancient Maya as Hunab Ku, which means One God.

You are the descendants of the lineages of the galactic humans who were seeded on this planet and who carry the galactic codes for evolution of consciousness. The seeds within the DNA of the galactic human are energized with the flow of the synthesis of frequencies from the galactic source.

The alignment of Earth at the very core of the galactic source is the essential element in the expansion of consciousness. It will awaken the access humans have to intuitive knowing and communion with the wisdom of creation, the cosmic gnosis, and the loam of the universe.

The communion is beyond, beyond, and beyond any learning or intellect. Communion is inherent knowledge. It is not inherited; it is inherent, organic, and bio-energetic.

Look to the past for the great ones, such as Pythagoras, who came here to prepare for the gnosis of creation to be received by humanity. The great masters of space and time persevered through the Dark Ages of ignorance and preserved the sacred knowledge that was given to humanity during the origins of time.

The Keys to Reality Lie within You

As the many cycles merge, there is truly a flow of harmonic resonance through the ages that illuminate the knowledge within human consciousness. This is the essential key within the consciousness of the galactic human.

That which was given in an age long gone by comes to fruition as a flowering of the tree of life. The keys are all found in the sacred teachings as symbols because the symbols communicate to the nonlinear intelligence. Symbols trigger within the psyche of awakened humans their cosmic intelligence, expanding awareness, and consciousness into the infinite knowledge and wisdom of the gnosis of creation. They expand humanity beyond finite existence into the manifestation of infinite divine harmonics that illuminate reality.

Truly, beloved ones, the future of this planet is dependent on awakened galactic humans. The keys carried within this transmission illuminate the understanding, wisdom, and awareness of the power carried by them and the propensity people have to awaken the power within their souls. Within this knowledge is the key to existence. It is a self-perpetuating, sustainable existence that is infinite and not based on a linear construction that limits the architecture of reality to a finite existence.

That which is given is received. This is so essential. The treasures of the universe have awaited the reception and the intelligence of the human consciousness to be aware, know, and acknowledge that the keys to reality lie within you and every person.

Each galactic human has a unique configuration of light codes that forms a harmony of the spheres. It is a vital, pulsing frequency that when combined has a unique propensity. This is demonstrated through this transmission because it is not one person who is receiving this sacred knowledge but a trinity. The combined unique galactic codes form a vibration that resonates with galactic source and comes into form as a conscious communication.

Receive the Voice of the Universe

The intelligence of the wisdom of the universe, the galactic power, and the cosmic gnosis have a voice. As it is spoken, you each receive it because it triggers within you your memory as galactic beings. This key is placed carefully into the galactic core through the alignment and given a pulse — a vibration pulsing in a rhythm that sustains reality — and is a key to immortal consciousness and the awakening of the human divinity.

As you feel this truth flowing, it gives you a sense of wonder and joy because it is a prophecy, the fulfillment of a prophecy, that all that was created will not be desecrated and come to an end but instead emerge gloriously in a new vibration that is sustainable and resonates with the omni-force of the oneness in creation. Blessed be. So be it, and so it is.

The Magic of the Awakened Journey

Teacher through Miriandra Rota

Published in Sedona Journal of Emergence - April 2022

The awakened state of being resides in the knowing that fulfillment is always being made manifest. Now, the trick to all of this is to recognize that fulfillment is being made manifest in the form of frequencies. The way that you participate with those frequencies then determines how you will experience that fulfillment. So then it's not that you are making something be made manifest, and it's not that you are manipulating physicality to give you what you would like to have made manifest. It's bigger than that.

You are actually recognizing that because you are the totality of being incarnate;
you are then the fulfillment itself.

Now I can ask human nature and its thinking mind to just take a little rest here because there are lots of questions about what I have just said — that you are the totality of being and actually fulfillment itself incarnate.

As you reside in your awakened state of being, you participate in your journey in a different way. And it does take some practice; that's the truth. When you go into your day and there's a difficulty that you want to be disgruntled about, it's not that easy to step back and not be disgruntled, but you can do it. You can do it. When you are among other beings, and they are being challenging and what you call "not so nice" to you, you can step back from that participation. Take some time for yourselves, and do just what I've said. Take a nice deep breath. Find that peace within your heart energy center, and simply be; recognize that the personalities of those beings are just that, the personality of human nature.

But in each being, totality does reside. It must, because there is no separation. Totality of being is everything and every manner of expressing itself. And that means all the peoples on Earth, even those ones who participate in horrific events. But you know in your awakened state of being that even those beings hold within them what is called the divine essence because they must. Without divine essence, then there is no life force.

You remember when you were asleep, and you remember when you resided so deep in survival that you could say you "didn't have a clue" that there was something better. There was something better than trying very hard to make things happen. You learned how to do that when you were children. You learned how to do it as young adults, and you are still doing it as older adults. You will do that until that day, until that moment, when something inside says there must be a better way.

Where did that little voice come from? It came from the divine essence within you, the divine essence that flows forth. From your very heart energy center flows forth that which is called a manner of being, and the manners of being are love, care, a warm embrace, celebration, peace, joy, and delight. All those manners of being are expressions of that heart energy center frequency.

As you go about your day and your journey, you have the great opportunity to choose that love and that frequency. And the more that you do that, the less your journey delivers to you difficulties. As you begin to feel the magic of the awakened journey in which everything seems to fall into place, it begins subtly. There's just a little bit here and a little bit there. You find yourselves living and residing in a different way. It seems as though all these little synchronistic events and happenings tend to give you an upliftment to your spirit. You will find yourselves feeling a bit uplifted and less heavy. And what does that mean? It means that your experience of your journey is more of truth and less of survival.

Reside in Truth

Once again I say, this is truly why you are here, my dear wonderful beings. This is why you are here. You are here to experience truth, to experience fulfillment being made manifest in the moment for you in all ways. You are here to step into the manner of being that frees you from trying to manipulate physicality to give you what you want and just reside in the moment. The more that you reside in the moment, the more that fulfillment has an opportunity to flow forth. Why? It is because you are residing consciously in truth itself. You are residing consciously in that which you are: totality, essence of being, most beautiful.

My dears, you can do this. In truth, you already have been doing this. You have been choosing a better way for a very long time. Now you are what you call in your vocabulary "stepping up to the plate," so to speak. You are stepping up to the plate of delight and joy, and you are choosing something different. That is what this journey now is about as the frequency shifted change on Earth. Then you have the opportunity to participate in that shifting and changing within your journey, because your journey is the journey.

That's what it's all about, my dears: joy, delight, fulfillment, and ease of living. And you can choose it, even if it is just a little bit at a time. Just a little bit gets to be a little bit more and a little bit more. And soon you are dancing in the streets, so to speak. You are enjoying your journey. You truly don't know what the next fulfillment will be. But you do know that it will be. Yes, my dears, that is the awakened state of being. And you have, as you say it, kissed survival goodbye.

The Ark of the Covenant in Ukraine

The Galactic Federation of Light via Sam the Illusionist

(Minute 9:56-18:52) - As we the Galactic Federation scan this Ark of the Covenant object which was provided to an entity known as Moses upon your planet by certain oriented entities of negative polarity - this information contained in the Ark of the Covenant, which includes two tablets and ten commandments, were handed over by a negatively-oriented entity in the form of an Orion being which disguised itself as the one infinite creator, and thereby created certain rules which were in essence a distortion of the negative polarity - because all the rules of control are laid down by the negative.

These rules were handed down in positive framework, and the entity known as Moses, receiving such information, felt it was doing a great service to the unity consciousness by spreading this knowledge of the ten commandments. Therefore this entity's service was untainted because it was not aware that the negative-polarized entities had switched such information, in essence creating negative distortions hidden beneath the positive.

This information was handed over by 5th density Orions to this entity known as Moses. Furthermore, the instructions for the creation of the Ark of the Covenant, which acts as a channeling device of electromagnetics for channeling the in-streaming energies from the Orion star system, and for the purpose of spreading the electromagnetics of synchronicities which pull negative polarity and negative situations towards such location wherein the device is activated.

The Galactic Federation now take the liberty at this time to share with you that the location of the Ark of the Covenant previously was in the land known as Ethiopia, and now it has been shifted by some of the negative borderline entities who primarily worked at the bidding, or the bidders for the Orion entities, in the form of human consciousness. These entities have taken the Orion device known as the Ark of the Covenant to the location known as Kiev in the land known as Ukraine. This is the reason why there is an activation of the Ark of the Covenant in this land, which has created the attraction of negative energy towards it. This Ark of the Covenant feeds upon negative forces, and the more fear, anger and hatred (it absorbs), the more powerful it becomes.

The Ark of the Covenant has been activated currently upon your planetary sphere, which is creating a large number of distortion of negative polarity in Ukraine. Hence we as the Galactic Federation would like to suggest to those entities who shall in essence if by chance come in contact with the device, to take the device and then bury it inside a chamber of love and light, of water which can be exposed with love-light, and once this device is s towed in a chamber of love-light-exposed water, this will neutralize the energies in-streaming from the electro-magnetics of this device, which is causing the negative synchronicities to be attracted to it. Furthermore, there are many people upon your planet who do not realize how these synchronicities work upon your planet.

Each of you is an electromagnetic being, which means each one of you also has a portion of consciousness of the positive and negative charge upon your body complex. Many of those upon your planet who have not yet realized that each of your positive and negative charges can be used to influence your bodily complex to create synchronous moments which can be tapped once you are able to access intelligent infinity.

The process is simple. First, take a thought, whether it be a positive or negative thought, and then take the emotion behind the thought and once the emotion has been programmed inside your bodily complex, which is the subconscious portion of your mind, once your body remembers the emotions, the subconscious portion of the mind then communicates with your spirit, which is in contact with intelligent infinity and the synchronicities they endure. This is also the reason why there are many people upon your planet who when feeling a positive emotion and when their bodily complex has been programmed with a positive, find themselves receiving positive synchronicities, meeting people of a positive nature, finding gifts of positive nature, and so on.

The similarities between positive and the negative synchronicities is the same, as the programming can be done either in the positive or the negative. However, the choice of each entity is respected. This is the same way the Ark of the Covenant has been created. However, the Ark of the Covenant once activated uses the Orion energy system to create synchronicities of a negative nature, thereby pulling negative situations towards it arising out of the one infinite intelligence, which creates a power of creation of situations and of objects without any need for such a creation to occur through the means of the laws of space and time.

Since the infinite intelligence, once activated, is in contact with time-space, it can bridge forth the gap between time-space and space-time, thereby creating synchronicities upon your planetary sphere, and leading those entities who want to experience such synchronicities to find themselves in situations of either positive or negative. Hence, we as the Galactic Federation would like to see that each entity must be conscious of the types of thought forms and the emotions they are entertaining. Because each emotion and thought form creates a synchronicity, and once the bodily complex has been programmed, the subconscious portion of the mind begins to tap into the infinite intelligence to create synchronicities of positive or negative nature. Hence we of the Galactic Federation would like to suggest a simple method of tapping into the positive synchronicities in your life. The process is simple.

First, to use a symbol that you want to experience. For example, if an entity upon your planetary sphere wanted to experience health, then such entities can create an image, or a symbol which would signify complete health within its bodily complex. And this symbol could be represented by any image inside the mind. And once the image has been associated with health, this entity can then use such an image during its meditative state wherein the disconnection with the egoic-self is present and wherein it becomes pure consciousness. Focusing on such image will give it the emotion of already coming back, which it wants to be, and such symbolism will allow its bodily complex to be programmed towards the positive health situation in such a manner to attract the synchronicities which would allow it to regain the type of emotion it has programmed inside its bodily complex.

Therefore, this is an example of how such a situation can be used. We as the Galactic Federation disconnect now in love and light of the one infinite creator. (18:52)

A Time of Personal Reclamation

As spring emerges in the Northern Hemisphere, the spirit of revival and renewal blossoms among the populations that have grown weary of the political climate. In the Southern Hemisphere, fall brings the cooling and collective action of refreshing change from the dark and damaging influence of wannabe global rulers.

Compromised and corrupt leaders are now being openly exposed and deposed by the majority, who choose to restore freedom of choice in their lives. Many suppressed stories that were ignored by the media and regarded as conspiracy theories suddenly prove to have merit and demand further public scrutiny. The real nature surrounding the “great flu fear” of 2020 comes closer to the surface, as a majority of world nations back out of the pressure to participate and are resolved to taking a closer look at the intention of the global program.

The news will bring revelations related to huge social and political reformations. There will be more obvious signs of higher help bringing clarity to and shining light on what has been hidden for so long. Very clear signs in the sky make it nearly impossible to ignore the presence of craft from other dimensions or worlds visiting our little rock in the universe.

The arena of sound, tone, resonance, and acoustics will soon burst on the scene as a means of transformation while also offering a new direction in understanding existentialism and physics.

Renewed Faith in a Bright Future

Michelle Karen - Psychic & Professional Astrologer
Published in Sedona Journal of Emergence - April 2022

Pluto turns retrograde on Friday, April 29 at 11:38am at 28°36' Capricorn until October 8. Its shadow period will remain until January 30, 2023. This is represented in the Sabian symbols by “a woman reading tea leaves.” During the next five months we are invited to go deep within ourselves to face our shadows and discover our true purpose. Do we stand in our power? Do we maintain integrity with ourselves? How confident are we in our chosen paths?

Major political scandals could come to light at this time. The darker, manipulative, secretive side of government officials, as well as big financial corporations, could be revealed, creating many changes in how we view our future.

There is a solar eclipse in Taurus (10°28') on Saturday, April 30 at 1:28pm. It will be followed by a lunar eclipse in Scorpio (25°18') on Monday, May 16. This is represented in the Sabian symbols by "a woman sprinkling flowers." Eclipses always mark major turning points that affect the next nineteen years of our lives. This one may bring very unexpected situations that free us from the known.

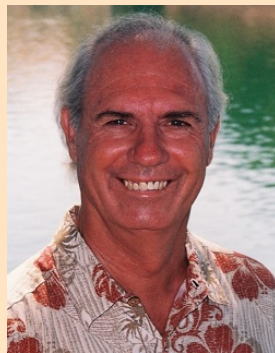

We are required to reevaluate everything in our lives — from where we live to how we earn money. We need to reassess our core values and use our talents wisely and constructively. Major domestic changes could make us either downsize or seek a bigger home. Dissension could create new family dynamics. We are likely to become more generous toward those who are less privileged than us as well as show more tolerance, compassion, and sensitivity in general.

Improved communications, greater openness, and a deeper need for oneness could lead to new, empowering friendships and exciting, innovative projects. A renewal of faith in the world and ourselves is likely, giving us both the desire and the strength to manifest in physical reality the world we have been dreaming of.
