

The Cabals' House of Cards is Collapsing Rapidly

Ashtar via James McConnell - March 24, 2022

Published at Voyages of Light

I am Ashtar. I come to be with you at this time, in these moments, these special moments that are upon you now, as all of life is awakening around you.

All of life is moving more and more into the higher vibrational frequency as life and energy continues to flood into the planet from the cosmic source. And yes, indeed, the fifth-dimensional sun is expressing through now more and more.

Up until recently, we and our ships have been holding this energy back so that it would not come too quickly into the planet, would not interfere with your central nervous systems, as they were not quite ready for this. But more and more now, this is being allowed to come through.

And as such, everything is coming down around the third-dimensional illusion. The house of cards is collapsing rapidly more and more now.

And those that have been in the shadows, those that have held the truth back from the population of this planet, are now being forced to bring this information forward now, even though they do not want to. They cannot hold it back. For they believe that they have to bring this information forward in order to stay in control. They have been tricked in this way.

For as this information comes forward throughout your internet and your many sources of media, the truth is coming forward. And as the truth comes forward, those that have attempted to hold it back are falling and failing rapidly.

Those of us in our ships that have been watching over this entire plan, helping it here and there wherever we could, wherever we were allowed to. More and more we are being allowed to give more and more assistance where it is needed, where it is called for, where it is asked to come forward.

We, of course cannot do it alone. You are our Boots on the Ground. You are the ones that are calling this energy forth, bringing it to you, bringing the truth forward in any way that you can.

And, as you have heard many times, this cannot be stopped, no matter what those of the dark forces attempt to do, those of the cabal, the Illuminati, the deep state, whatever you wish to call them.

They are no longer in control. Within the illusion, they appear to be in control. But they are not. Because the illusion of the third-dimensional matrix is just that, an illusion. The reality is coming forward more and more.

And those of the forces of light are many steps ahead of those of the forces of darkness. Many steps ahead, so that they can see what is coming, even before they put that plan into action. And as they [the dark forces] attempt to bring total chaos to the planet, the chaos that they then intended to bring order after, they are not able to do that any longer. Yes, they can provide the chaos. But they are not the ones to bring the order: you are. You, all of you, the Alliance, the White Hats, all of us working with those forces here on the planet: we are all bringing this about, bringing the end of the chaos.

And the chaos is coming to an end. First there shall be more chaos, though. More seeming chaos, I will say. For those that have the eyes to see and the ears to hear, it is not chaos. It is simply the falling of the veil, the falling of the illusion more and more.

And you all are in place now, just as you intended to be many, many thousands and thousands of years ago when you volunteered to be here, you are in place now, exactly where you need to be.

And more and more of you will feel the call now, feel the call that is reaching out to you to move you ahead upon your mission, whatever that might be. However you feel that you can contribute, now is the time to do so. Find it within your heart, within your high heart. Listen to the call from your Higher Self who is now not only whispering, but is beginning to shout more and more to you.

Listen to those whispers, and listen to those shouts, for it is all up to you, the collective you, as to how this will continue to play out. But play out, it shall.

Know that as indeed one of yours said earlier on your call, you have the power, each and every one of you has the power within you to blow this system wide open, to be those System Busters that you came here to be. So do it. Just simply do it. Whatever that might take, do it.

I am Ashtar. I so appreciate these times that I can be here to share with you, and to give you just a glimpse here and there, as you read between the lines, that myself and many of us as we bring these messages to you, what you call "little hints here and there." For there are always those messages within the messages for you to decipher and for you to discern.

All of my peace and love be with all of you. Go forward now and be those ones that you came here to be, those System Busters. For this system must fully come down before the new can arise from it.

A Message from Vrillon of the Ashtar Galactic Command

Greetings Humans, I am Vrillon from the Ashtar Galactic Command speaking to your race today. My first contact with your planet was almost 45 years ago, when I came to warn your planet. Our intentions were to show ourselves, and we made a decision to withhold our appearance because you were not ready to accept our existence.

The communication was through the UK Television local channel. Today is my first communication since 1977. Your planet Earth is in the situation where you need to make a decision about your destiny. Many of you are still not awake, and the awakened ones need to move to higher realms and help others to receive the Light.

Unfortunately, many souls are going to leave this plane of existence due to the poison in form of shots. You have still a long way to go to a full awakening and many changes your world requires to move to the New Age. All of the politicians need replacement by the structure of small groups, which are going to serve your race.

Your ground special forces have been removing the beings who are a threat to you. Ukraine is not the only place where the cleanup is necessary. They are going to continue their global operation. We are present in your skies and observe the events happening on Earth.

This year is the turning point in the history of your civilization. Artificial Intelligence, Khazarian Mafia, Outworlders and other Evil Entities who are trying to destroy your world. They need to be removed permanently without a chance to return. Your destiny is in your hands. You are our Brothers and Sisters who are from different Planets, Galaxies and Universes.

As soon you remember, who you are, you are going to regain your spiritual powers. The ground work is your responsibilities, not ours. We are going to continue to keep your skies safe from the Cosmos. Thank you Universal Channel. We are Sending Our Supreme Love and the Truth from the Cosmos.

Look for the Good | The Angels via Ann Albers
Published at Voyages of Light - March 26, 2022

Our dear friends, we love you so very much. As the energies of light and "forgetting-light" vie for attention in your world, you feel that tug of war in your bodies, minds, and hearts. So many of you sensitive souls feel the density of the lower vibrational energies tugging at you now, trying to get your attention and convince you that your world is going downhill. It is not.

Thanks to each and every one of you and countless others, your world is moving towards a greater light.

Look for the good and you will see it everywhere. As you notice it and celebrate it, you empower it. As you focus upon it, it flows to you and through you. As you refuse to be drowned in the darkness you witness in this world and instead hold your focus steadfast on the good, you will find that you feel better in body, mind, and soul.

You can find good everywhere, even in the darkest of situations. There is nature in her purity beckoning you to receive the blessings of her beauty and life-affirming chemistry. There are people quietly performing acts of love and service. There are individuals who never thought they'd do anything other than live their daily lives who are stepping into the role of amazing charitable leaders. Strangers are opening their hearts and homes to one another.

Caring souls are lovingly guiding the young. Loving caregivers are tending to the babies, the elderly, the disabled, and your furry. Truckers, shippers, stockers, and clerks are quietly keeping economies in motion, while farmers, bakers, bees, and so many other beings, ensure that you get a cup of coffee in the morning and food on the table. Even in the midst of bombs and rubble, there are countless souls reaching into their depths to find and bring forth goodness amidst the ashes.

Everywhere you look, there is good. Everywhere you look, there is God. In some situations, the good is easy to see. In others, you must look more carefully. Nonetheless, it is always there.

There are, without question atrocities being enacted in your world right now. There are people so possessed by fear and anger that they commit crimes against their own human nature. They seek false power because they have not known the true power of love. They are sad, lost, and lonely and their souls need your prayers.

These are the few, rather than the many. There are far more people doing good upon your earth. There are far more people engaged in acts of kindness right now as we speak, than those engaging in acts of hate.

There is plenty of bad news that makes the news, yet we have good news. Love is winning. Love is the "end game." Love is what heals hearts, stops wars, and what lifts souls out of the ignorance of hate and darkness which traps them in a cage of their own creation.

Love is the only thing that will set you free and help you rise above the tugs and pulls of the various forces vying for your attention. Love is what gives you energy, connects you with guidance, and allows you to enjoy your life while dancing around the density.

When you focus on the good in your world, you focus on God. When you share the good you share God. One social media post documenting a loving act can inspire thousands. Will you be the one to notice it and share it?

One kind word or deed with a request to "pay it forward" can start a chain of loving gain. Will you be a link in that chain? One inspiring word to a person who is feeling down-trodden can give them the hope to carry on. Can you be such an influencer of incredible proportions by saying a kind word today?

You, dear ones, by noticing the good within you and around you, you kindle the light of love upon your planet earth.

Love is winning dear friends. Love is making the lost doubt in their darkness. Love is inspiring those who love to stand up for what they love. Love is creating a global family that is more united, caring, and compassionate than ever before. Look for this love in the smallest of ways. Notice it. Celebrate it. Know that in so doing, you empower it.

Your prayers, your kindness, and your choices to take tender, loving care of yourselves and one another are changing your world and the course of your history. God Bless You! We love you so very much. -- The Angels
