We know about the seven chakra energy centers and how to meditate with them. Now it's time to allow the body and third eye to awaken to the new essentials of life. It's time to experience the initiation and application of the new spiritual chakras. It's time to merge with our blessed higher selves and lightbodies to softly meld into our illumination and ascension. The chakras are our interdimensional circuits — our organs of light.

The opening of the eighth chakra unites the physical body with the nonphysical body, known as the etheric self or lightbody. This process began on December 21, 2012, and is now in full force. Thousands and thousands of lightworkers now have their eighth chakras open and spinning in balance with the original seven chakras.

The human body is a dense layer and the base of a multidimensional hierarchy, a soul structure. This is a continuation of the life force's creative flow that is just now becoming available to us. The human form is linking into multiple aspects of itself. This is the true ascension process. Each section expresses a range of frequencies or vibrations within its network or zone of energy, similar to spheres within spheres.

The body is not separate from creation. The body is a further expression of creation, which is projected into a denser section within the third dimension on the Earth plane. The body is a vehicle that enables the soul to see, touch, and feel. The body has the ability to shift awareness from one level to another. This is a learned ability, and it is how we navigate through the matrix system within the universe.

We all will accomplish transitioning (which is the process of leaving the dense body with the etheric self), thought transference or telepathy, absent or distant healing, and the out-of-body experience, which is the ability to leave the physical body to experience the nonphysical by learning how to vibrate differently using the spine, the seven primary chakras, and the new spiritual chakras that connect and filter down to the primary chakras. We can learn these artful techniques by studying yoga, mantras, mudras, music, sound, and meditation to shift the mind into nonverbal and noncritical frequencies, experiencing neutrality as many people call it.

This is a new universal vibration — a state of being — that has not been able to be accessed or held on the Earth plane before. This new ability will carry us into the new world that's coming. The physical body is a resonator through which waves of vibrations are able to pass through the matrix grid and enter the physical body through the new spiritual chakras, beginning with the eighth chakra. This is the new energy that was brought forth from the center of the galaxy in 2012, enabling our galactic citizenship and unification.

Image 1 shows the opening each new chakra brings to the body as well as its color. This new energy enlivens each chakra to bring our entire being into a higher state of consciousness as a form of galactic and universal expression. The limitations on the Earth plane system will be overcome by working with the body and the new chakras, raising our vibrations to higher levels. As the spiritual chakras open, they bring us higher-dimensional gifts and finally take us into the immortal state of peace.

You Have Created So Much Change and Don't Realize It

Week 52 Message - Archangel Michael via Sharon Stewart - April 17, 2022

Published at Voyages of Light

Sharon: Hi folks! Well, we did it! It's our anniversary. Congratulate yourselves and be grateful for Michael's guidance and tutelage. Pat yourselves on the back as well! We've done so well.

Michael: I am Michael. You have created so much change, and yet you do not realize it. We of the heavens do see the change you have created. Let me cite some examples for you now.

We have stopped a war event between the U.S. and Russia over Ukraine. This is still ongoing. We are transmuting the energies in the area to align with the Light.

We have helped the indigenous people of Australia to continue to stand against the darkness in that country.

We have helped to stabilize the artificial 4D timeline in order to allow many to jump off, if you will, onto the natural 4D timeline.

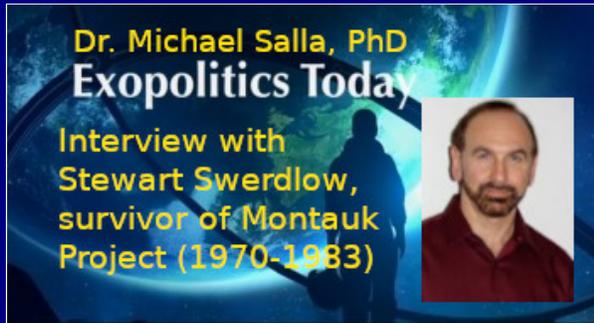

We have helped to infuse the 5D grid with more energy and this has helped to stabilize the entire ascension process for earth.

There is more. Please understand your efforts are working. Even if you feel you do not see results, understand they are working. For many areas of earth, events could have been a lot worse had your energies not been so lovingly given.

I did not ask you to help because I thought we would fail. I knew we would be successful.

So again, I ask you to send positive energies to the Ukraine. This will help to stabilize the area and will help to awaken those who feel a war is imminent. It is only imminent if you allow it to be. Look at the area of the Ukraine as a melting pot of energies and all the souls who are thinking about it are connected to that melting pot. Please submit your love to that melting pot and energies will be transferred to those of lesser heart.

I am Michael. I am your leader. I am your Light. We are Legion. Again, my heartfelt gratefulness for your participation, angels. Adonai.

Awakened Collective: Here is Your Impact Report
The 9D Arcturian Council via Daniel Scranton - April 18, 2022
Published at Voyages of Light

“Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you. We are always so very interested in what you, as the awakened collective, are doing to help your fellow humans, and we have noticed how many of you have been the trailblazers and trendsetters lately that you always intended to be in this lifetime.

You are creating new templates, new roadmaps, to show the rest of humankind how it is done, and you are utilizing your own creations as well to bring about the experiences and the realities that you have decided you prefer. Your desires have given birth to new energies that then come into your awareness as ideas, as inspiration, as thoughts about how you can continue to move forward in the ways that you want to there on Earth.

You, because you are awake, always want to go further, to go deeper, to stretch the consciousness that you have out, so that who you are includes more, and you are basically showing the rest of humanity how this is done by leading the way, by setting the example. Many people ask us, and the other guides and collectives that Daniel channels, about their purpose, about what they are supposed to be doing. You may not recognize your contributions because it's not like you put this all down on paper and then got a publisher to put it out there on the Internet and in book stores.

You cannot see or feel the impact you are having by creating these new templates, these new roadmaps for ascension and expansion of consciousness, but we can, and that's why we tell you about these things. We want to reassure you, always, that you are contributing and you are on the right track. Also, many of you worry about your loved ones and whether they are going to make it, whether they will also be able to shift their consciousness, and the answer is, of course they will because they have you. And whether you know it or not, you are leading by example, and you are planting seeds within all of them, and these are very good things.

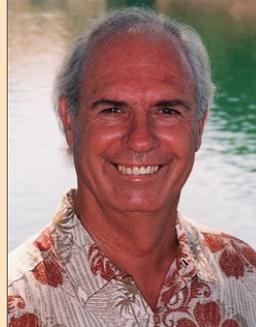

Start to feel the impact that you have had on your very own life, and you will start to get an idea of the impact you are having on the collective you are a part of. You will continue to do this because it is the only thing that is truly satisfying for you to partake in, and because the energies will continue to give you those nudges, those inspired ideas, and those intuitive hits that take you to the next level of consciousness and that help you to bring more of your fellow humans along for the ride with you.

This is how you fulfill your purpose and complete your mission, and we are very happy to say that we see more and more people doing it every single day. We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.”
