

The Big Clean-Up & Your Participation

Queen An-Ra via Erena Velazquez - April 23, 2022

Published on her Facebook page

Greetings Humanity, I am Queen An-Ra, leader of the Grand Council of New Earth Council, and I am also the leader of the Council of the Planetary Inter-Galactic Coalition. This new alliance includes now over 250 different civilizations, who desire to live in peace.

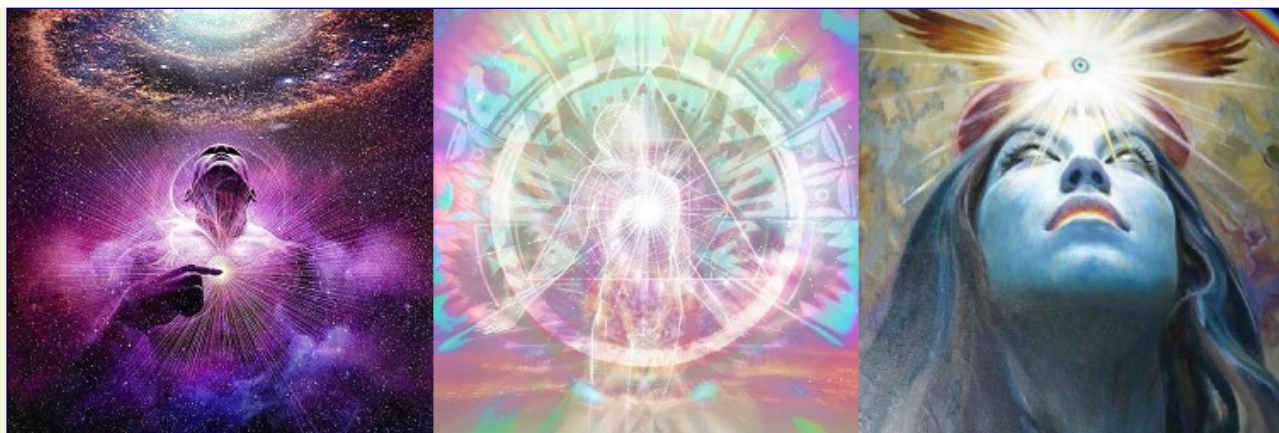

Your world continues to reflect 3D illusion on the surface, the Elite is playing chess with humankind by deceiving them. The media, which is corrupted from head to toe, trying to save their face, it's too late. Nobody believes them except the ones asleep. Minority of your population knows the real truth. They are ready to Ascend and move to New Earth.

The high energies are bringing the lies out to the light. The Darkness can't hide their true nature from the awakened population and the ones asleep are starting to question their surroundings. Humanity needs to evolve in order to survive. Your planet cannot progress unless you remove the corrupted officials from everywhere.

Right now, you are experiencing the big cleanup, and your participation is needed. The Darkness ruling times are coming to an end. You are transitioning into a higher dimension to continue to progress in spiritual advancement. In the near future, the top players are going to be exposed for the crimes against your civilization.

Please, focus on staying in a high frequency to help lift Earth. You can only accomplish this through consistent meditations. Let go of the energies of 3D. You can't move forward unless you release anger, resentment, jealousy, etc. These emotions represent low vibrations, which can keep you stuck in the Matrix.

After your transition, I am going to send my daughter to your planet as ambassador to help to move into next step of growth. You are going to need a lot of guidance and assistance. It's your first Ascension on Mother Earth. We are ready to be of service to your civilization, please get ready for first contact with the civilizations out in space. The Cosmos always keeps evolving, nothing stays same. Enjoy your ride into a new reality. Thank you, Universal Channel. Open yourselves to receive blessings from Cosmos. Queen An-Ra.

The Progress of the Awakened Collective & Ascension

The 9D Arcturian Council via Daniel Scranton - April 23, 2022

Published at www.DanielScranton.com

“Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you. We are very satisfied with humanity’s progress, as we see you from the perspective of reading the overall vibration of the collective, and we are especially happy about the progress that you have been making as the awakened collective, because you are capable of expanding and growing in leaps and bounds. You have that ability because of all that you are doing to keep up with the energies, all that you are doing to examine yourselves, to look within and see where there are stuck energies that need releasing. This ascension is all about releasing that which is lower vibrational, letting it go. The more you let go of, the more you can rise up.

The less attached you are, the less you have clinging to you, and your energy gets lighter and lighter, and the only place for you to go is up. It is not important for you to look out at the world today as it is today and ask yourselves how you can fix it. Do what feels best to you to be a good citizen and a good steward of the world. But as you take care of your own vibration, your own energy, and you show yourself that it is possible to relax in a tense situation, it is possible to be joyous in a mundane situation, and it is possible to love in the face of hate, you demonstrate to not only yourselves, but to the entire collective how it is done, how you can be light at any time of day and in the face of any amount of darkness.

You are not there to figure it all out. You are not there to figure out who is representing the dark and who is representing the light. All of those other beings are just reflecting something back to you anyway. You are there to shine your own light, and the more you let go of, the easier that is. The more you give in to the current set of circumstances, the brighter you can shine. The more you seek to be love in all situations, the more you see love all around you. That’s the goal and the mission for everyone, and that’s how you get to where you are going joyously, with grace, love and ease in your hearts.

Practice the art of letting go, and you will be letting in more of who are, more of the light and love of Source, and more of the higher-frequency energies that are coming from above. Now, we tell you all of this, and at the same time, we want to point out that we see so many of you already doing it. We want you to know that this is why we are so satisfied with your progress, and that as you keep it up, as you keep going, you will pull humanity up with you into the higher realms that you are all destined to be living in some day. But as you do this consciously and deliberately, you make the journey more satisfying for you, and you open the door to more fun, to more joyous experiences along the way. We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.”

The End of Old Earth

*Angel Ariel channeled through Adria Estribou
Published in Sedona Journal of Emergence - May 2022*

Angel Ariel: There's a tremendous wave of change here with us now on the New Earth and also somewhat on old Earth. This might seem a little bit of an odd way of saying it, but there is a barrage of energies hitting old Earth right now to destroy the world as you knew it.

Do we mean that there's an asteroid headed to the planet or that there are some missiles or something like that? No, we don't mean that. We don't mean a physical third-dimensional destruction. It's more complete than that and also lighter and more carefree.

Some of you are going to understand more palpably than ever before the choice that is before you. For a while now, in the past three years or less, there has been what you could call a parallel of the old Earth with the New Earth. These Earths have been straddling each other in some sense. So you have had the ability to travel between the two, and many of you have been going back and forth between the third dimension and fifth dimension — or what you might call your more powerful self and your more confined or old, outmoded self. You've had access to both.

The reasons for this are many. One is that people can transfer over at their own timing. You can acclimate to the fifth dimension in smaller doses so that it doesn't feel so overwhelming and then go back to your comfort zone. There's a lot of compassion in the way this has been designed, and that's why it wasn't an overnight transition. At the same time, things are getting more dire in a sense.

We do mean that quite lightly, and we're making fun, but there are these predictions of the end of Earth. Well, yes, it's very true. Every day you have the end of yourself in the cellular level and the beginning of something new.

So destruction, change, and new birth, that's an everyday occurrence in your life. You don't have to feel dramatic about that. When we talk about the end of old Earth, it's not an apocalypse. We're talking about a great, great refresh and change, and finally, let's clear out some of this old debris. It is similar to when you restart your cell phone or computer and all that stored knowledge — the data that's no longer relevant and so on — can just be cleared to give you a clear, fresh slate. It's more like that. It's not referring to missiles and destruction and so on. However, it is a destruction. It is a recycling of great magnitude.

You can be very, very aware of your choices in this. The more you focus on how you used to be, how it used to be, and what is "normal," the less comfortable or real Earth is going to feel to you. In other words, if you choose to stay in what we will call old Earth, which is just defined simply as your old understanding of yourself built up from birth to about three years ago — the more you cling to that, the more surreal Earth or daily life is going to feel. You'll feel a little disjointed with maybe a little déjà vu and be just a little out of sorts.

The more you are willing to dive into understanding and expression, the easier it's going to feel: "Oh, we're in New Earth now, so all the old rules don't apply. This means my sense of myself does not apply." It will be more magical, lighter, and freer. You will see your creations take spark and root and fruit all in one hour or one year instead of a lifetime. In other words, it will feel like an acceleration of life. And you will move through things very, very quickly.

So if you think of yourself as a magical being, or as a regular being living in a magical universe (either viewpoint works from our standpoint), then you can love the fact that things move so fast. You almost just blink your eyes, and it's new.

Be Patient while You Adjust

If you are trying to orient yourself based on your old understanding of yourself and old Earth, then it will feel as if it's happening too fast. That's where the comparison that this is "too fast" comes from. Many of you have been struggling a little with this: "Whoa, why are things so fast all of the sudden!?" This is a hallmark of New Earth. Things come into being very rapidly, and you move through growth and change very rapidly.

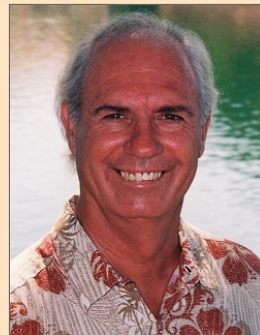

If you can think of the number of times in this life you thought, "Oh my goodness, why is change so slow? Why can't I have what I want? Why am I stuck in this old paradigm or pattern?" This is the antidote. We've come out of that. However, that's the familiar and the comfortable, so it can take some time to adjust. So be patient with yourself in this also.

We are in an acceleration of time, quite literally. From an angelic viewpoint, that's what it feels like to many of you because it is literally what is happening. Acceleration of time means: "I grow through things, I change through things, and I create things at very, very rapid rate."

What would the divine purpose of something like this be? The divine purpose for acceleration of time means you get to learn and accomplish and grow and share and help and heal more in the rest of this life than if time had not accelerated. (This is not the only reason.)
