The Coming Blast Off into a New World Mira of the Pleiadian High Council via Valerie Donner - April 28, 2022 Published on Voyages of Light

Greetings: I am Mira from the Pleiadian High Council. I greet you today with all of the love in my heart. You are such an amazing ground crew. I want you to know how important you are to the whole Divine Plan for the ascension of the earth.

As you might have realized by now, the ascension of the earth is a complex order of things. They are interlocking and intertwining, almost like the wiring of a computer but far more complex. The complexities contain past, present, and future considerations, which are also modulated and modified with ongoing, ever-changing quantum circumstances.

Some of you may ask, "Why isn't this happening sooner?" In all sincerity, you are about to see everything expedited to lightning speed. The crumbling old system is chugging its way to a halt. It's like seeing a runaway train that suddenly comes to a stop. It shakes itself loose and all that is left is a foundation, an amorphous form remaining with which to work.

This is a simplified way of saying your lives are in for a big planetary change. You have been sleeping on the earth and most people are still not awake. What is about to occur is going to be like a blast off into a whole New World. It is going to be taken care of simply and easily. You will awaken to a New World, a new you, and a glorious planet.

We are telling you this now because it is the right time. We know some of you have been hanging on for years. We understand how your patience has worn thin. We don't blame you for having had enough. We know it is impossible for life to be returned to the way it was. You thought it was normal to live the way that you were living, yet that is far from the truth.

What is real and true about how to live is in peace, harmony, joy, kindness, cooperation, abundance, and respect. The way you have been living is the antithesis of what we have just described. The ease with which you will be living could be shocking for a few minutes until you realize you are out of the old mold. You will never return again. This planet will never be treated the way that you experienced it and you will never be treated the way that you were treated either.

Together we are creating a New World. With this consciousness all of life in all of creation will be celebrating. You are to be honored and glorified for your good work. Your dedication and devotion have made this possible. Soon we will be able to unite as one big galactic family. I am Mira and welcoming you open heartedly into our New World!

Message from Commander Apollo via Valerie Donner

"We greet you today on our special mission of peace. The turmoil on planet earth is creating crisis and chaos throughout your planetary system and other places too. This cannot be tolerated any longer. Special forces of light are in place redirecting the dark and negative energies that invaded the earth throughout eons of time. It is necessary to embark upon this most important Mission to resurrect the earth and return her to the light. Everything is in place for this impending shift. You are already beginning to feel these energies.

You may feel unbalanced, nervous, strange, overly tired, indecisive, and like a stranger in a strange land. You may be hungrier than usual, or not hungry at all. You may feel more inwardly and like you want to get rid of things. You may have also noticed the fast pace of time. There is much going on behind the scenes and much to attend to in your own lives. It is advisable to reconcile situations in your lives that have been unattended too. Procrastination will become something of the past. If possible, attempt to clean up what you can. Ask us for help if you need it. We are with you."

Clarifications about the Galacitc Federation of Light Commander Ashtar via Erena Velazquez - April 29, 2022 Published on Erena's Facebook Page

Dear Brothers and Sisters, I am Ashtar, the Commander of the Galactic Federation of Light, and it's my turn to communicate and clarify some things to the Light Community and humankind. We view you as our younger brothers and sisters, who are on the way to your evolution. During this process, you receive a lot of false information, which slows down your progress.

Today, I want to give you some deeper understanding and clarification about us. I want to specify to everyone that the Universal Channel (Erena Velazquez) is our only truthful bridge of communication in this moment with your civilization. We were waiting for this Divine connection to be ready for a longtime. All the beings including me, who came once through this channel, don't connect anymore with other channelers. I was hoping that the humans would be able to see this for themselves, so I don't need to explain it.

I stopped working with other channelers a while ago, as soon she was ready to do the channeling. The other messages from Ashtar are fake not from me. I don't give interviews nor do other beings conduct them, ever. We don't follow false celebrities' protocols. We communicate only telepathically, when it's appropriate timing. Also, we didn't nominate anyone on Earth to be our ambassadors. These individuals nominated themselves.

If you want to ascend, you need to learn to speak the truth. We, the Galactics, are tired of humans making up different types of stories about us and constantly changing the facts, names, etc.

Another matter I want bring to your awareness: we stay away from the timelines and don't try to adjust them. It can cause unpredictable events in the Cosmos. A while ago, Prime Creator himself accelerated the timelines to help with the Ascension process. He is the only one who has authority to do it.

My fleet is continuously dealing with unfriendly species, who are looking to conquer territories, to sneak out to your planet or just cause trouble. Regarding progress on your planet, Putin keeps removing the Evil from Ukraine despite being criticized and verbally attacked by the West officials and media.

The elections in France were stolen again. These Dark Entities are not going to magically disappear, unless someone physically removes them one by one. Humankind needs to unify with each other and ask your militaries to be on your side. You can't remove these Evil Souls without their help.

Majority of your civilization is still asleep; you can see this for yourselves. They are going to continue to stay in the 3D Matrix; their evolution is not going to happen now. We expect only a certain percentage of humans to be awake and move to the New Earth. Your window for Ascension is going to be open only for a specific time. It will be more explained about it in the future. Please, be alert and proactive, follow the Divine Flow. Thank you, Universal Channel. I have a faith in my Brothers and Sisters. Follow the Truth. Ashtar.

Create in the Vibration of Love The Arcturians channeled by Kate Woodley - April 27, 2022 Published on www.AscensionCalling.com

Hello our dear ones. We are at the Arcturians. We are honored and delighted to once again have an opportunity to share our messages, insight and love with you all. As you may know, we in many ways are your brothers and sisters of the light. We are not that different from you. Although perhaps, to the naked eye, you would see and perceive us as quite different.

We would like to speak briefly about the connection that we, the Arcturians, share with humanity. We have long served as your guardians, as your guides, as your watchdogs. We have long served as watchdogs to humanity as well as to your beautiful Gaia to ensure that your evolution is aligned with all that you need to know, feel, and experience so that this ascension process may be in alignment with your greatest good.

Of course, there is only any level of intervention, and we will say more direct guidance, from us when we feel that it is necessary. All in all, our dear ones, we are all equal sparks of the Divine Source. The only difference is that perhaps we have ventured a little bit further along in our consciousness evolution.

We have experienced long, long ago much of what humanity is experiencing at this time. And as such, we stand by you and with you, as guardians who know all too well what you are experiencing. We understand the division, the polarity, the judgment, and the fear that is often very pervasive in your realm and in your experience. We are here to remind you, our dear ones, that you are part of a much grander collective, that many of you have been us, and that many of us have been you. We are simply at this time in different stages of our evolution. We are experiencing something different but nonetheless we are all part of a grand collective of light.

Manifest from Love

We, the Arcturians, come to remind you that at your core, you are much more than you give yourselves credit for. You are light and you are of the light. You are capable of great love as well as great and tremendous creativity. When you create through love, you manifest great things. And conversely, if you create in the absence of love, what you manifest also reflects the absence of love. As such, we are here to remind you to connect with your Higher Selves and your inner light. Remember who you are, what you are from; that at your source point origin you are all from the light simply experiencing individuality and remembering that even as individuals of light, you are part of a much greater collective. This collective is a strong one, it is bonded and sealed in love and in peace. This is what you are all learning to return to. But like many journeys, it can be bumpy at times, it can be wrought with ups and downs. Humanity has been experiencing this.

We are here to assure you that the ride forth will level out. It will normalize. And as you become clearer in your thoughts of love, and what you want to experience and manifest in your individual lives as well as for humanity as a whole, you will very easily and quickly manifest and attract all that you desire.

Wielding Your Creative Power

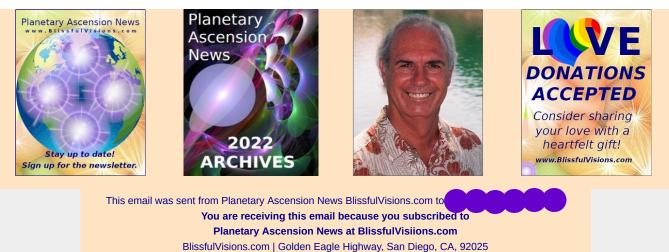

As such, it is important that you are very aware of all of your thoughts, all of your intentions, your desires, and your words. For this is what the Universe is hearing, and at this time, the energies are ripe for manifestation. So be aware of your co-creative power, your abilities. Be very mindful of all that you focus on and choose wisely. Choose Love, choose unity, choose harmony.

Do not succumb to the fear and the negativity that has been long fed to you. For it is your power as well as your birthright entitlement to rise above all that is not within the vibration of love. The vibration of love is your spiritual home. It is your true forum and arena through which you can experience and manifest all things. This is your power. It is a power that you are all learning to become familiar with once again.

It is our pleasure and delight to see you play with these abilities. They are not new powers, but they are powers that many of you have forgotten to wield in a way that benefits you and to the greatest good. Once again, our dear loved ones, you are supported and you are guided. Be creative. Use love as your canvas for creation. Blessings to all of you, The Arcturians.
