

The Last Newsletter

A Farewell Message from Reverend Dennis

(1) My email marketing provider was bought out months ago, and it has given its subscribers notice that it is ending service, to be absorbed into the parent company for its own operations. Therefore, I am being guided to suspend indefinitely publication of the newsletter. This will be the last newsletter.

(2) Prices for this type of service have increased, and I don't use all the features that these types of services offer. Considering the number of subscribers the newsletter has, it would cost me $30 per month, double the amount of my current subscription. There is a price increase as the number of subscribers increase to certain levels. I do not wish to take on the additional expense.

(3) There are additional costs that I incur to bring you a unique and newsworthy publication that other spiritual newsletters might not offer. For example: I subscribe to Sedona Journal of Emergence at $29 per year; Benjamin Fulford subscription at $11 per month; Voyages of Light at $2 per month; plus my monthly internet charge. Articles from all of these sources I include in the newsletter at appropriate times.

(4) I've discovered that twice a week publication is a lot of work to research, create and format, and can be eventually an exhausting task. Although it has been a joy for me, I find myself going in other directions now.

The newsletter has given you many (in)credible sources to follow if you want to stay up to date and informed on the chaos and confusion and drama of the world. There's no end to the drama that other sources want to voice. If you want free daily updates on spirituality and ascension process, I recommend you connect with Voyages of Light on Blogspot.

However, the greatest breakthroughs will come from the breakthroughs we make inwardly, both as individuals and as a collective. Many in the world have not discovered yet that life is all about the inner game of self-realization – a game of forgetting and remembering one's true nature.

(5) The more important aspect to all of this is, I want to remove myself as much as possible from the chaos and confusion and drama of the 3D world. I find its energy very distracting, and always attempting to push me out of my spiritual mind of Oneness back into 3D awareness. And, publishing "Top Headlines" in the newsletter that describe the nefarious acts of the dark forces seems to aggravate my frustration with it. The dark forces will lose the war. It's already happening. The option has always been open for them to turn towards the Light, but I am exhausted with reporting on their insanity.

How much of their insanity do we have to hear before we realize they have become obsessed and insane with their convoluted ideas and attitudes of world domination, and they don't want to change their Satanic ways? Their New World Order is not going to happen on Mother Earth because we are in the era of the Great Shift in Consciousness from 3D to 5D. This is Love's Divine Plan. Nothing can stop it.

Even the 9D Arcturian Council has repeated it several times in their messages, and as recently as on the Solstice: "We know that there's a lot of focus on Artificial Intelligence, and reptilians, cabal groups, and so on, and the idea that they all must be defeated before you can access the truth of who you are within you, and none of that is true. All of it just keeps you from focusing on what is truly important, which is always what's going on within you." This is precisely my point, too.

(6) I want to focus more deeply on my inner life; on creating an inner world of joy, love, creativity, balance, and harmony, that will be reflected into my outer-world and the New Earth. I seek to take more time to be in tune with nature, and enter more into the stillness of Oneness. I don't want to be tied any longer to a newsletter with a deadline.

(7) I invite you to join me on Facebook where I will be posting updates on a regular basis:

(8) Also, I will be maintaining my website (BlissfulVisions.com) and adding new articles as they become relevant. You can always visit whenever you like. It has everything you need to achieve 5D consciousness. Except, of course, the vastly important ingredients of your perseverance and determination.

(9) The guidance and contemplations to change course did not happen overnight. I've been feeling them for quite some time. I hope you will accept my explanation and longing for Oneness, and wish me well on my journey, as I do you. Keep raising your vibration and shining your love-light. It has been an honor and privilege to serve you.

Bless all of you, Reverend Dennis

“Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you. We are so very elated to see you all working with the solstice energies and opening up to your spiritual gifts and abilities, and we want you to know that as you continue on in this journey of expansion and ascension, you will find that you do not have to wait until the shift in consciousness is complete to access that which you think of as fifth dimensional.

You can tune in right now to what you want to experience as a fifth-dimensional being. You can tune in to your light body right now. You can focus on the 5D Earth right now, and bring certain aspects of it into your reality. This shift in consciousness is not just something to wait around for, but rather, it is something to aspire to in the here and now.

To know that you have a fifth-dimensional consciousness available to you and to not use it is very sad when you think about it. When you think about what’s available to you, and what you allow yourself to access, which is much less than that, you can start to feel like you’ve got your work cut out for you, but you could also feel hope and inner peace. Knowing that it’s all available to you right now could send you into a state of ecstasy.

There’s no need to feel ashamed or guilty about not having accessed all that is within you yet, but occasionally you will need beings and collectives like ourselves to come along and nudge you, and even light a fire under you to say, ‘This is possible right now. So what are you waiting for?’

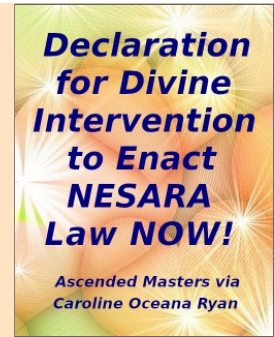

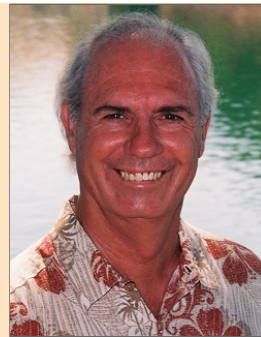

The solstice energies are nudging you in the direction of accessing your gifts, and now we are nudging you in the direction of knowing yourself as a fifth-dimensional being right now, which means allowing the highest level of consciousness you have access to in the now to be the level of consciousness that you hold. Many people there on Earth have already experienced miracles.

They’ve experienced moments where they understood that they were one with everything in the universe. They’ve had moments of enlightenment, nirvana, such profound inner peace, that they just want to share that with the rest of the world. That’s what you are there to do, and that’s why we keep directing you back inside of yourselves.

We invite you to experience that which is available to you right now, when you focus and when you feel for all that is inside of you in the now moment. We invite you to spread that around with joy, because others need to be inspired and activated by you, just as you get inspired and activated by us.

This is what we mean when we call you the ground crew, and if you’ve ever heard us refer to the Awakened Collective, we just want to assure you that you are a part of that group as well. Demonstrate to yourselves what is possible right now, and you will share that with others, because it will be impossible not to.

Now is the time, and you are ready. The long wait is over. Go within and access your 5D self, and you will be very glad that you did. We are the Arcturian Council, and we have enjoyed connecting with you.”
